Rogers Says Best Prosperity Proof Comes From Reno

(Special To The News)

BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., May 16.—Somebody is always quoting figures to prove that the country is prosperous and it takes a lot of quoting, but the only real bona fide indication of it was in the paper today.

"Divorces in Reno have increased over 105 per cent in the last year."

Now that's prosperity. For you can't be broke and get a divorce. That's why the poor have to live with each other.

There is nothing that denotes prosperity quicker than to hear that "so and so and his wife ain't getting along."

I maintain that it should cost as much to get married as it does to get divorced. Make it look like marriage is worth as much as divorce, even if it ain't.

That would also make the preachers financially independent like it has the lawyers.

Yours for the downtrodden,
WILL ROGERS.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Pa Newc is pleased to extend a welcome to New Castle today to the some hundreds of visitors from Western Pennsylvania, who are here for the Scottish Rite reunion at the cathedral. Likewise, a hearty welcome is offered in behalf of the city to Secretary of Labor James J. Davis, on the occasion of his visit to New Castle again this evening.

Request made of the city council that the matter of providing more fire fighting apparatus for the North Hill section, as made by the members of the W. D. Wallace company, yesterday, is one that deserves more than passing attention. The North Hill section has developed rapidly in the past few years, and there is an immense territory for the firemen to cover. The best fire fighting facilities possible should be provided for the district. With the establishment of the new fire station on South Jefferson street and the placing in service of another pumper and combination machine there, it is expected that this apparatus will answer all North Hill alarms in addition to the Park avenue department.

From comment made to Pa Newc from a number of sources, it is the idea of citizens that some method should be adopted by the city garbage collection department whereby citizens would have an approximate idea as to the time that the collection of cans is to be made in the various parts of the city.

Through arrangements made by The News, some 59 children of the Margaret Henry Children's home were privileged to attend the circus performance this afternoon.

When anyone is called to their phone to answer a wrong number, it is bad, but particularly bad if the same wrong number is answered about three times in five minutes. Yesterday afternoon at the Jameson hospital, this occurred, and when a plaintive voice, after finding the man was not about, asked what place was answering, the superintendent of construction gruffly answered: "This is the brewery".

Doing the work of more than 30 "gandy dancers," the ditch digging steam shovel on West Garfield avenue, now engaged in excavating a sewer ditch, has progressed far. Although operations were started only a short time ago and then held up by the rain, yet it has progressed almost a block.

There are many things that one can find at the library if one looks long enough and hard enough. Yesterday Pa Newc was informed that there was on file a bound volume of Godey's Ladies Book. And then, there are complete files of Harpers dating from the early 1850's.

Why women return goods at the stores was explained to Pa News last evening by one of the local merchants. "You know," he says, "when

She fell into the cement court in the rear of the apartment house and died within a few minutes.

An 11-year-old son, Andrew, was sitting at the dining table waiting for his mother to come to breakfast when the tragedy occurred.

Divers To Seek Recovery Of Ten Drowned In Lake

Two Expert Divers From Brockton, Mass., To Seek To Recover Bodies In Lake

MAY ATTEMPT TO LIFT MOTORBOAT

(International News Service)

GREENVILLE, Me., May 16.—Diving for the bodies of ten Massachusetts and Maine men who were drowned in Lower Moosehead Lake, late Sunday, was expected to start today with the arrival of two civilian divers from Brockton, Mass., home of nine of the victims of the tragedy.

The motorboat which suddenly stopped and sank a mile from the shore was thought to be the tomb of at least nine of the men.

Only Captain Lays, another Brockton man was saved. Lays made the swim to the shore and carried the news to the nearest inhabited spot before collapsing.

It was expected that an attempt would be made to lift the sunken motor boat from the bottom of the lake with the aid of a 50 foot lake steamship, failing in this, it was believed officials would make use of the services of the Brockton divers who will probably arrive today.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The overwhelming leads being rolled up by Herbert Hoover and Gov. Al Smith for their respective presidential nominations was further emphasized today by the results of primaries and conventions held in a number of states yesterday.

Hoover added delegates from three states, New Jersey, Alabama, and Montana, to his already imposing total. In New Jersey he is accorded the entire delegation of 31, in Alabama he is figured to have obtained 14 out of 16, and in Montana at least 4 out of 11.

Rev. J. D. Waters And Thomas Thompson Are Ordered Before Officials

PASTOR REVEALS TROUBLE FEARED

Believe Slaying Of Clark Was Premeditated By Attorney Tyrrell

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, May 16.—Working on the theory that F. J. Tyrrell, Munhall Sunday school superintendent premeditated the killing of Philip Clark, husband of a choir singer in the church, county detectives today were to question two more witnesses to the shooting Sunday.

Rev. J. D. Waters, pastor of the church, and Thomas Thompson, elder, were ordered to report for questioning after County Detective Michael McDermott learned members of the church were aware of impending trouble between the killer and his victim.

Tyrrell was to have been attorney in the choir singer's divorce suit against Clark.

Pastor Feared Trouble

Trouble between Tyrrell and Clark had been feared, Rev. Waters intimated, but he refused to reveal "at this time" all that had taken place. The shooting, he said, followed closely upon an interrogation of Tyrrell in an anteroom of the church. What took place in the anteroom, he refused to reveal.

Asked why he had attempted to secure a policeman, shortly before the shooting Rev. Waters said: "I feared

Ten Negro Children Orphaned; Father Gives Life Saving Fellow Worker

(International News Service)

DONORA, Pa., May 16.—A fund was being raised here today to provide for ten negro children, orphaned this week, the result of their father's heroism.

The father, Samuel Carter, employed by the American Steel & Wire company, risked his life in a futile effort to save Albert Ferraro, who had fallen into a vat of acid. Painfully burned, Carter contracted flu which developed into pneumonia and caused his death. He was buried Sunday.

Mrs. Nettie Carter, who had nursed her husband, contracted the flu from him. She died last night.

The ten children, ranging in age from four months to 17 years, were taken to the home of an aunt, Mrs. Lee Towler, mother of ten. The score of children are living in three rooms.

Prohibition Forces In Buffalo District To Undergo Shakeup

Two Former Prohibition Chiefs And Dozen Officials Under Indictments

Charge Investigation Obstructed And Alcohol Illegally Diverted

(International News Service)

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 16.—A general shakeup in prohibition administration of this federal district was forecast today as a result of the indictment of two former heads and more than a dozen officials of the Buffalo enforcement office.

The offense charged is illegal diversion of alcohol from the plant of the Illinois Alcohol Company here. Judge Roscoe C. Harper of New York, former prohibition administrator of this district; Michael H. Stapleton, New York, former chief of the Buffalo dry office, and Leo Regan, New York, former assistant administrator, were the leaders of an organization, including 38 men now under indictment, which diverted the alcohol, according to District Attorney Richard H. Templeton.

According to the charges, 108 carloads of alcohol were taken from the distillery, and bribes totaling a half million dollars were paid government agents by the conspirators.

Obstructed Investigation

The indictment further charges that two high enforcement officers of this district, whose names are not given, at one time obstructed a proposed investigation of the Illinois Alcohol Company. A special agent, sent from Washington, received no assistance from this district in his efforts to examine the company, it is alleged.

Five active prohibition agents, named in the indictment, were suspended by Prohibition Administrator Andrew McCampbell yesterday. They were: John McQuade, Edward Dupont, Leroy Wilder, Edward Moran and J. Herve Reeves. Both Harper and Regan were arraigned yesterday. They entered pleas of not guilty and were released under bond.

President Coolidge Addresses Federation Of Art Delegations

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, May 16.—President Coolidge, addressing a joint meeting of the American Federation of Arts and the American Association of Museums here today, drew an analogy from the homily about clothes making the man and urged a greater application of the arts to the expansion and growth of American cities.

"If clothes make the man—and certainly good dress gives one a sense of self-respect and poise—how much more is it true that clean, beautiful surroundings lend a moral tone to a community," he declared. "Gradually we are getting rid of the squalor of the slums of our big cities and of the oppressive ugliness of the small towns."

Practical Side of Art.

Mr. Coolidge gave much credit to the Washington plan commisston, created in 1901 under the guidance of the late Senator James McMillan of Michigan for having started a national movement for more orderly and artistic civic development and he noted that that impetus had carried a long way, adding, however:

"It is especially the practical side of art that requires more emphasis. We need to put more effort into translating art into the daily life of the people. If we could surround ourselves with the forms of beauty, the evil things of life would tend to disappear and our moral standards would tend to disappear and our moral standards would be raised. Through our contact with the beautiful we see more of the truth and are brought into closer harmony with the infinite.

The president lauded the recent practice of inaugurating zonine laws in the larger communities. He said they had brought about a distinctive type of American business architecture which had been much admired by visitors from abroad.

No Longer Mere Vision.

"Our country has reached a position where this beauty is no longer a visionary desire but is becoming an actual reality," he continued. "With general prosperity, with high wages,

DETROIT, May 16.—Detroit today was prepared to acclaim the Bremen flyers, Baron von Huenefeld, Capt. Herman Koehl and Major James Fitzmaurice, who are scheduled to arrive by airplane from St. Louis at 2:30 p. m.

Mayor John C. Lodge's executive committee, headed by Edsel Ford, has completed all arrangements to give Detroiters as much chance as possible to view the famous German-Irish trio. During their stay here which will last until Friday morning they will appear many times in public, as well as at two evening dinners and will travel over many miles of streets to points of interest.

Prof. Hugo Junkers, builder of the Bremen, and his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Plate and Dr. Edward Rumley arrived yesterday from Chicago to be the guests of the city. Plate and Rumley are officials of the North Lloyd Steamship company.

Immediately upon arrival the flyers will be escorted to the city hall, remaining for a few minutes in the mayors office before going to special stands on the Woodward avenue side, where arrangements have been made to handle 50,000 persons for the first official welcoming ceremony. The trio will be guests of German leaders at a dinner tonight. From there they will go to Olympia, Detroit's great amphitheatre, for an Olympic games benefit program.

Group Of Senators Seek To Amend New Tax Bill To Include Inheritance Tax Repeal

INSURGENT GROUP APPEARS INCENSED

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Although insurgent leaders warned that the effort might defeat all tax relief legislation at the present session of congress, a bipartisan group of senators today sought to amend the $227,000,000 tax bill to include the repeal or at least reduction of the Federal inheritance tax.

The drive was doomed to defeat but it incensed insurgent leaders, who formed a coalition with the administration forces to keep tax reduction within the limit set by the treasury. The insurgents were promised that if they supported the administration bill no effort would be made to repeal the inheritance tax. Most of the administration senators planned to vote with the insurgents against the repeal of the tax, in view of this

Every Section Of Pittsburgh Drawn Into Federal Investigation

SERVE SUBPOENAES ON BIG LEADERS

Asked To Produce All Police And Magistrate Records For Past Two Years

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, May 16.—Every section of Pittsburgh today was drawn into the Federal grand jury investigation into the politically controlled liquor traffic here, as prohibition enforcement agents served subpoenaes on Mayor Charles H. Kline, Director of Public Safety James H. Clark, Superintendent of Police Peter P. Walsh and seven magistrates directing them to produce all police and magistrate records for the past two years.

To Extend Probe

The new move verifies rumors that the inquiry was to be increased in scope and authorities predicted that the investigation will prove to be the largest and most complete drive ever made against prohibition violators in Pittsburgh.

The summons served on the public safety officers directed them to produce all dockets, blotters, day books, transcript books and every record of police transactions.

While those in charge of the investigation attempted to cover the newest move with the same secrecy which has been evident throughout, it is understood that the books will be used in efforts to trace the records of liquor resort operators.

There is one thing that Pa Newc will always miss when it comes circus time, and that is the "Mammoth Street Parade". Not many circuses, these days, we are informed, have street parades. As soon as the automobile began to make traffic more heavy, they were abandoned.

Colors in the woods at this season of year are almost as beautiful as in the fall, yet there is not so great a variety and blaze of color. Yet all shade of green are in evident from the darkest olive, almost red to the lightset greens not far removed from yellow. Then here and there may be observed spots of white or pink as some fruit tree sends forth its flare of blossoms.

We notice that Patrick Kane, crossing watchman at the P. and L. E. crossing on West Washington street is sporting a new uniform. He looks quite classy with the brass buttons, braid and lettering on his coat. Well, he sure deserves any consideration for who knows how many fool drivers he has kept from going under the wheels of the trains there.

Serious Charges Entered Against Slugger Of Pilot

Assault With Intent To Kill, Desertion And Parole Breaking Charges Filed

(International News Service)

PONTIAC, Mich, May 16.—Three serious charges confront Clarence Frechette, alleged to have slugged Harry Anderson, pilot of an airplane in which they were flying 2,000 feet above the city.

Frechette faces charges of assault with intent to kill, desertion from the United States Navy, and violation of two year probation for automobile theft.

Anderson, whom Frechette is alleged to have struck with a hammer, is in serious condition. Anderson indicated he will place a charge of assault with intent to kill against Frechette, and will ask for ahe appointment of a sanity commission.

Frechette was convicted of automobile theft last year and placed on probation. Last winter he enlisted in the navy and is now wanted as a deserter, police say.

HOOVER AND SMITH CONTINUE TO GAIN DELEGATE SUPPORT

Hoover total to above the 500 mark. The most reliable tables in Washington give his total as of today as approximately 503 pledged, instructed or committed delegates. Only 545 are required to nominate, and in that total of 508 none have been figured from New York, where the Hoover managers claim at least 47.

From this compilation, it is apparent that if the Secretary of Commerce can hold his indicted strength during the next four weeks he will come very close to being nominated on the first or second ballots. Whether this strength can be held is, of course, conjectural. The Hoover opposition contends that in this imposing total there are perhaps 100 that cannot be considered bound irrevocable to the cabinet candidate. These 100 are described as "fluid," that is favorable to Hoover but liable to bolt if another band-wagon hoves into view.

Few Delegates Unchosen

Only half a dozen states are still to select their delegates to the Kansas City Convention, Florida, South Dakota, Texas, Vermont, West Virginia and Oregon. Oregon's 13 are figured in the 503 as Hoover alone filed in the state, which automatically gives him the delegation. Florida and Texas are considered favorable Hoover territory. Vermont is doubtful, but probably for Hoover after a vote for Coolidge; and in West Virginia a primary will be held on May 29, with Hoover pitted against Senator Guy D. Goff, a favorite son.

On the Democratic side, Smith picked up delegates in New Jersey, Montana, and Vermont yesterday. State conventions in Montana and Vermont instructed 16 delegates to vote for the New York Governor at Houston, and there was no opposition to his getting the 28 from Jersey.

This brings the Smith total to date in pledged, instructed or committed delegates to approximately 578 in the capital's most reliable tables, and he has notable reserve strength that is not figured in that total, such as in Maryland and Ohio and Kansas. To nominate at Houston requires 734 votes.

The Democrats have been slower in selecting their convention delegates than the Republicans.

There are thirteen states yet to designate their Houston delegates—Alabama, Colorado, Florida, Kentucky, Mississippi, New Mexico, North Carolina, Oregon, South Carolina, South Dakota, Texas, Virginia and West Virginia.

Two amendments, however, were sponsored by Senator Bingham (R) of Conn., one would repeal the tax entirely. Minister Tells Of Shooting

PITTSBURGH, May 16.—"I will deal with Clark with my own hands". With this threat, F. J. Tyrrell ran from Rev. J. G. Water's study in the First Christian church, Munhall, Sunday and shot Philip Clark to death, Rev. Waters today told District Attorney Samuel Gardner.

Rev. Waters, with fifty others saw Tyrrell kill the man who accused him of causing Mrs. Clark, a choir singer in the church, to seek to divorce her husband.

Clark hoped to publicly charge Tyrrell with breaking up his home, Rev. Waters revealed, but he said he persuaded the man not to do it. Shortly before the day's services were to have begun, Tyrrell, the Sunday school superintendent arrived, Rev. Waters said.

The minister, Thomas Thompson of the church board and Tyrrell went into conference in the study, Rev. Waters said, and Tyrrell was told of Clark's intentions.

Rushing from the study, Tyrrell shouted, "I will clean this thing up once and for all myself, and I will deal with Clark with my own hands", the minister said. Thompson corroborated the minister's testimony.

PITTSBURGH, May 16.—Mrs. Hazel Clark, widow of Philip Clark, who was killed in the First Christian church at Munhall by F. T. Tyrrell, Sunday school superintendent, today was summoned to appear at the coroners inquest Friday at 10 a. m.

Mrs. Clark's 9 year old son, who saw the shooting of his father, will not be required to attend the inquest, according to the coroner.

CIRCUS DRAWS LARGE CROWD

Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus Arrives This Morning From Meadville

Summer is here. The first harbinger of the new season arrived in New Castle this morning: the Hagenbeck-Wallace circus, which is playing at the Seventh ward circus grounds this afternoon. Replete with all of the old attractions and many new ones, the show is drawing mammoth crowds to the grounds.

Elephants, lions, tigers, monkeys, trained bears and many other lesser known species of fauna are at hand to attract the crowds. And chief of them all is Miss Gussie, the elephant who does the black bottom, who has been trouping with the show for a great many years.

There was no street parade. Not many circuses feature the street parade now. Traffic forbids it.

But it is circus day in New Castle. Everyone will go and everyone will be satisfied with one of the best shows on the road. Aside from this afternoon's performance, there will be a showing this evening at the Seventh ward grounds.

CURVING CORNERS

AMONG sane recommendations that experts have made is for a large radius at street intersections.

There is not a motorist or traffic policeman who does not realize the inconvenience and danger of the right angle curb of the average street intersection. It is more than either a danger or an inconvenience. It is actually an obstacle to traffic, for it slows down unnecessarily the vehicle in making the turn.

In the days when traffic was slower and the principal vehicle was horse-drawn, the sharp turn at a street intersection was permissible. Today with traffic properly moving faster if only to accommodate its volume, the right-angled turn is an impediment.

Here and there in New Castle, this fact has been recognized and the radius enlarged. The practice will continue. The experts are convinced after study that in cities, this is one of many things required to facilitate the efficient handling of traffic.

IT IS STILL THE WORLD'S BEST SELLER

THE ANNUAL report of the American Bible Society states that the total number of this famous book, issued complete or in parts during 1927, was 10,034,797, published in 166 different languages and dialects. It is true that many of these were manufactured for free distribution, but it is equally true that many millions were purchased for personal or community uses.

In the face of these figures it is a bit mystifying to hear it referred to as "the book that nobody knows." What we are sure of is that the Bible is the greatest seller that has ever been known in the history of publishing.

DISTINGUISHED MEN IN THE HALL OF FAME

IN PLACING busts of Louis Agassiz, Refus Choate, John Paul Jones, S. F. B. Morse and John Greenleaf Whittier in the Hall of Fame of the New York University, the verdict of posterity has been confirmed and emphasized. There is variety enough in this last group of immortals to satisfy all tastes. We have a scientist, a naval hero, a great lawyer, an inventor and one of our best loved poets. It was appropriate that the bust of John Paul Jones should have been unveiled by Richmond Pearson Hobson, the young hero of the Merrimac at Santiago during the Spanish-American War.

The memorial to Whittier was presented by the Society of Friends, of which he was a prominent member. His work had about it what Lowell styled "a genial piety" and there is both wit and wisdom in all that he wrote. Much of his verse had to do with the Civil War. As a Quaker he was not in favor of armed conflict; but once it began he insisted that one of its purposes should be the abolition of slavery. He edited The Pennsylvania Freeman in Philadelphia from 1838 to 1840, and in the early part of that period his office was sacked and burned by a mob. No one was more delighted with the end of the war between the States, and with the termination of slavery, and he did all in his power to induce the North to welcome back the South in the most generous spirit. He was something of an editor, a politician and a reformer, but it is as a poet that he is best remembered.

There are some who find fault with the selections for the Hall of Fame, but generally speaking they give honor to whom honor is due, and in this way perpetuate the names of those who have reflected the best there is in our history.

When a man is undone he's done, usually. The English language is a wonderful invention.

There are two kinds of men: Very busy men who will serve you now, and men who have little to do and will attend to your case next week.

New Castle's Progress Attracting Attention

While there are some in New Castle who are not in tune with the city's progressive ideas, it is refreshing now and then to have emphasized the fact that outside of New Castle, this city is getting credit for many of the things that are being accomplished here, and which by reason of familiarity fail to properly impress local citizens.

For instance, here is an enlightening comment that was noted in the recent issue of the Grove City Reporter, newspaper published at Grove City, following the victory of the New Castle band and orchestra:

WHERE NEW CASTLE GETS IT

New Castle won honors at the Music Contest held here last week. There is no question but that the judges were right in their awards in the case. The performance of both the orchestra and band was like unto professionals and artists of ability. It was certainly a treat to listen to both organizations. Where did they get it?

For some time past we have been noticing that for some reason or other a number of the best things musically that the country affords have included New Castle on their list of stops. Some of the greatest and best orchestras and band organizations and also some of the country's most famous artists in the field of music have been heard not only by New Castle folks but by a few Grove City folks who have driven the 28 miles to New Castle for that purpose.

These artists and great musical organizations just did not happen to drop in on New Castle. Great artists and famous musical organizations do not take "pot shots" at communities in this fashion. There is a reason for their appearance.

Last week announcement was made of the getting together of the music lovers of New Castle for the purpose of arranging this coming winter's musical program for the city. This program is to include some om the most famous and best of organizations and artists that are to be found. We will make a venture that special reservations will be made for the high school folks, especially those of the orchestra and band and those taking part in the chorus work. The hearing of these artists will be inspiration to all. It just can not help but be such.

New Castle is a much larger place than Grove City. They have facilities there that we do not possess. The chances to come out without going into the proverbial "hole," are fairly remote as far as those having the project in hand is concerned.

It would be impossible for Grove City to do on as big a scale the things that the folks in New Castle are attempting, but couldn't we take on a little program similar. It just takes some "sponsorfication" (if there exists such a term) to put the project across, and that is what New Castle is at the present time doing.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 7:11. Sun rises tomorrow 4:42.

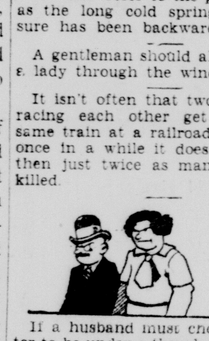
Do not be alarmed too easily after washing your ears. All noises naturally sound greater then.

The old timers who have been handling and been around horses all their lives never get so that they want to have much to do with driving an automobile. It seems sort of sacrilige to them.

We can refer to the present spring as the long cold spring of 1928. It sure has been backward.

A gentleman should always precede a lady through the windshield.

It isn't often that two automobiles racing each other get hit by the same train at a railroad crossing but once in a while it does happen and then just twice as many people get killed.



If a husband must choose, it's better to be under a thumb than in front of a trigger finger.

HERE'S WHAT WE GET.

Hints and Dints—I notice you are against cig smoking in restaurants You get in bad with a lot of people for that and when you run for office they vote against you. Then you have the fanatics who are against cigs everywhere all the time and they have no use for you because you are not against cigs everywhere, but will tolerate them in other places than eating places. These babies have it in for you and they vote against you. You should come out and be against cigs everywhere or let them alone. Yours for cleaner and more money in politics. Reformer.

Editor's Note—Heinz preserve us!

Accidents will happen. That is why there are so many different kinds of salads.

When two college professors could not make their automobile go while they were touring Bulgaria and had worked all day trying to get the bus to navigate the king came along and in a few minutes had them going on their way. They didn't even know it was the king until they saw some people saluting him later on.

Lots of bad things happen. But there are so many more bad things that don't happen.

The Bible has been printed in 169 languages so far. And at that there are lot of people who hardly ever read it in the English language. It is still the greatest of all books.

IF ONE PARTNER WASTES HIS SHARE, IT'S NONE OF THE PARTNER'S BUSINESS.

Bill was in love and wished to marry but his father was dead and his mother and four sisters depended on him for their living.

He explained the situation to the woman he loved. "I think it's fine of you to care for them" said she; 'and I wouldn't have you do otherwise."

She meant what she said but after she and Bill were married she began to see the situation in a new light. What had seemed Bill's now seemed hers; when he gave away his earnings he seemed to be giving away her property.

Bill made a great deal of money, however and there was enough for all—enough, that is, for the needs of all but not enough to waste.

One morning having spent the night trying to discover a way to reduce expenses, Bill said to his wife: "Honey, we're spending too much money. I spend very little on myself; isn't there some way you can cut expenses?"

And then Bill learned something. He learned that things had been happening behind his back.

"I could save" said his wife, "but why should I? If I don't spend it somebody else will. Your mother and sisters don't deny themselves anything and I'm not going to wear old clothes and pinch pennies just to provide more spending money for them."

"I see" said Bill; "instead of trying to help me all of you are spending all you can. You know there's just so much and you're trying to get your share and keep the others from getting too much. I'm just the great American plow horse."

And so he was. There are tens of thousands just like him. Wherever there is a married man supporting an aged father or mother or young sisters or brothers there is a wife who is jealous—who resents his generosity—who feels cheated. And the result is competition in extravagance and an end of all dreams of saving money.

The primary fault is in our system which gives the wife the right to feel that whatever belongs to her husband belongs to her. It causes innumerable quarrels and many, many divorces.

It is a wrong system. A wife is a partner. She is entitled to half of the surplus remaining when partnership expenses are paid. But once she has her half it is none of her business what the other partner does with his share.

After while there may be a move to keep lawyers out of church after the way that one murdered a man in Pittsburgh a few days ago. We heard of a couple of incidents around here where they were given the gate or whatever it is when one gets in in a church election. We are going to write an essay on the subject. "The Political Lawyer as an Asset to the Church Some of these days." That kind of a lawyer isn't much of an asset to a community as a rule.

Practice makes perfect. It takes quite a bit of practice to kiss like an amateur.

Some mechanics think the car was sent to the garage to have the contents of its tool box removed.

Many folks who object to having their names in the paper will find fault if the paper does not cover the news of the day.

A young chap who has been a fugitive from justice took a chance of going to prison for life when he went to see his mother's grave in New York on Mother's Day. When he looked up after praying the cop took him in. Mother sure is a magnet to draw a son even after she is dead.

Professor Irving Fisher of Yale, calculates that in 1930 the average duration of life in the United States will be 61 yearrs; in 1940, 65 years; in 1950, 69 years; in 1960, 72 years; in 1970, 75 years; in 1980, 78 years; in 1990, 80 years in 2000, 82 years and 2100, 94 years. At present the average length of life is 58 years.

Criticism doesn't necessarily have to be adverse but it seems to be the only brand that's really plentiful.

Fruit growers of South Wales are protesting that they are not making sufficient profits to provide food for themselves and families. At a meeting of the Nambour Fruit Growers society recently it was declared that 80 per cent of the growers are not making $15 a week and that many were netting less than $10. Housewives' associations and price reduction societies were blamed for keeping down prices without reducing costs of production. Many growers are threatening to give up their orchards.

The Band Wagon.

Vegetables and Meat.

Listen to Lili Damita.

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE

It looks like a "band wagon rush" for Secretary Hoover. William M. Butler, chairman of the Republican National Committee and Massachusetts leader, will vote for Hoover.

Mr. Mellon's strong endorsement of Secretary Hoover convinces nine "practical" Republicans out of ten that the thing is settled.

There seems to be nothing left of the plan to "beat Hoover" except the possibility that President Coolidge can be induced to change his mind. Those that know the President, even a little, do not expect it.

William Childs, owner of many restaurants, says he is NOT trying to make America vegetarian by refusing to sell meat. Wise man. Vegetarian nations are usually slave nations.

Three hundred million ladies and gentlemen in India eat no meat, because their religion forbids it. They drink no alcohol.

A handful of Englishmen, thousands of miles away, eat plenty of meat, drink plenty of alcohol. But they boss and tax, with a force of only 100,000 British in India.

It took the earth millions of years to produce fertile soil, assisted by earthworms. The cow needs two or three years to produced a beefsteak from grasses. Man in half an hour manufactures brains from the beefsteak. Time is money, ergo, meat is money.

Lili Damita, beautiful lady, coming from France bound for Hollywood says:

"American men are infants. They want to play, to dance, to act childish. They do not interest me. I like men with understanding."

The worst of that is the truth in it. The lady adds:

"I do not marry until I am an old woman."

She might make a film about Abraham's wife. The lady says:

"I have many princes and dukes in love with me.

Your glands regulate your personality. Prof. Berman of Columbia University can prove it. Your four parathyroids, small as a grain of wheat, mean more than all your education. A future revised version may read:

"I will praise the Lord for I am fearfully and wonderfully made, with my endocrines discharging hormones into the blood stream, and my parathyroids regulating the electrical condition of the lime salts of the body."

And that is no pseudo scientific jest. When thyroid is lacking, idiocy is inevitable. Glands account for genius or lack of it, for crime and moral misbehavior. The thyroid is responsible for crimes of passion. Ninety per cent of delinquent girls have enlarged thyroid glands. It is all frightfully complicated.

On top of this endocrine information, Dr. Blum of Berlin says:

"Fathers moderately addicted to alcohol are most likely to have male children, while the offspring of a temperate male person are pre-eminently girls."

Mothers that wants boys will kindly remember German scientists do not use bootleg whisky in their experiments.

Merely smelling alcohol caused male mice to produce an overwhelming majority of male offspring. The alcohol entered father mouse's blood through the nose.

Mademoiselle Simone de la Chaume, French, is woman golf champion of England. The British saw Mlle. de la Chaume beaten by the American girl, Glenna Collett.

Once more you wonder why European blood transplanted to America beats Europe, male and female.

However, we haven't produced anybody yet to beat that French lady marvel, Lenglen.

CARES

To the cares I've left behind me now
I turn and wave my hand.
They are countless tiny pebbles mostly buried in the sand,
But the time was they were mountains and the time was they were grim,
Once they had their fleeting moments and their memory now is dim.
And in looking back I wonder if it really can be true
That the soul of me was fretted by a care so small to view.

There were days of doubt and danger—and how long they seemed to last!
They were giants of the future, now they're pigmies of the past.
And at some of them I'm laughing as I see them toppled down
And I wonder, looking backward, how they ever caused a frown.
They were troubles, I am certain, for I feared them one and all,
But there's very few among them that I really can recall.

Now this morning doubt confronts me and tomorrow's dread seems near,
I can hear the giants roaring and my cheeks are white with fear.
"This," I say, "is real trouble, this is drudgery and care.
Here's an extra burden added to the many I must bear.
But if men shall stop and ask me when I've journeyed down the way
It may be I shan't remember what is fretting me today."

NATURE'S WAY

When we get aphides on our rose bushes or worms on our tobacco leaves or moths in our orchard we use all kinds of poison spray.

This is man's way of controlling the pest, putting out poison, just as we poison rats or mice or other pests.

Nature's way of controlling the rats is by multiplying the cats and terrier dogs. Nature's way of controlling pestiferous insects is to multiply birds and other insect eating creatures.

The most vigorous insect eater that we know of is the bat.

He is not a pleasant sort of animal because he lives in dark places and flies by night, and there have been lots of naughty stories told about him.

All the same he is nature's means of reducing insects, and the conclusion of scientists is to the effect that if we are going to get rid of the codling moth and other pestiferous insects, the best way to do it is by multiplying bats.

We have clung to the poisoning business because there seemed to be no other remedy, but experimentation has proved that there is another remedy more in harmony with nature.

It has shown, also, that poison is injurious to the tree and to the fruit, also that it destroys the natural enemies of the codling moth. The spray residue has been declared injurious to health and almost impossible to remove.

Clogging the pores of the leaves interferes with the function of the leaf and makes smaller and inferior fruit.

Also spraying is expensive.

That the bat is the natural enemy of the codling moth in the apple growing districts is known, because it can be found in every place where apples are grown.

The codling moth was named after the "Codling apples" of Europe and introduced into the United States some time before 1750. It is the most serious insect pest which the apple grower of the United States knows. Its scientific name is "Carpocasa pomonella L." It is grayish brown with dark brown spots near the tip of the forewing; the wing span is three-fourths inch.

Nature has a way of balancing her different forms of life. When insects were created and the night-flying kind was brought into existence there was also created a predaceous night-flying parasite. Undisturbed, the insect eater would limit the number of insect pests.

The secretary of agriculture says, "We must rely upon natural enemies for the most efficient control. It would be worth enormous sums of money if the codling moth could be eradicated from any region."

By erecting bat roosts many districts in Texas have been rendered sanitary, as the bat eats the mosquito. Now it is proposed to put up bat roosts in the Yakima Valley in Washington and let the bats de-limit our insects for us.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

A GREAT HIGHWAY

The Union Pacific Railroad has been described as a Road "beginning nowhere and ending nowhere." Literally speaking, it begins at Council Bluffs, Iowa, and ends at Ogden, Utah. It is only by a contract with the Chicago and Northwestern that it enters Chicago and by similar contract with the Southern Pacific that it enters Salt Lake and San Francisco. Its Pacific Northwest connections were built, bought and contracted for later. It only recently bought the control of the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake Road. A writer for a New York newspaper cannot pass the unusual situation without speaking straight out from the shoulder regarding the capabilities of Edward H. Harriman. He says:

"Nearly twenty-two years ago E. H. Harriman, so often disconcertingly bold, suddenly raised the dividend rate upon his Union Pacific Railroad from $6 to $10 annually. Wall Street gasped. No other important American railroad was then paying so high a rate as was undertaken by a system which only a few years before had been popularly described as a streak of rust. Less than ten years out of receivership, the company had reported for the previous fiscal year only a little more than $14 a share available for common dividends.

"Borrowing the wisdom of Letizia Bonaparte, to whose son Harriman had so often been figuratively compared, the conservatives of finance and of railroading decided that ten per cent on so huge an issue as $195,000,000 was too good to last. The action of the stock reflected this skepticism at the time and has continued to do so more or less until this year. On the day the dividend increase was announced the price advanced a dozen points to 179, though early in September of that year it sold fractionally above 195. Its best price of 1907 was 183 and in the same year of October panic it sold at par. In 1909 and 1910 it sold for brief periods above its present price, but most of the time since then has been well below that level and has usually offered the purchaser a larger return than the run of high-class rails.

"In August, 1906, a director of the Union Pacific, anticipating criticism of its abrupt advance in the dividend rate and distrust of its ability to maintain the higher rate, said:

"The maintenance of the rate seems easily within the capacity of the properties, in view of the splendid physical condition to which they have been brought and the strong strategical position they have attained."

That was said of a railroad with gross revenues of $67,000,000 annually which, with little change in capitalization, now has annual receipts from transportation of more than $200,000,000. In the two intervening decades the storm of foreign war has come and gone; the pestilence of government regulation of rates, finance, construction and many aspects of operation has come and settled down. The dividend rate established in 1906 has been steadily maintained; indeed, with the stock distribution of 1914 the stockholder of 1906 is now in receipt of $12 a share or more. The margin of safety over dividend requirements has increased and the physical condition of the property is, as then, the admiration of railroad experts.

"Last year, for the second time, Union Pacific's income from investments outside its own system exceeded its fixed charges. Edward H. Harriman, who has been dead nearly 20 years, could not see that happen, but he could and did foresee it."

C. B. D. CHARLES B. DRISCOLL

IN THE MIDST OF BEAUTY

If anybody had told me that I was growing up amid beautiful surroundings when I was a boy, I would have thought my informant a little bit cracked. I would have gone about for weeks, imitating him and laughing heartily at the foolishness of a grown man who would try to convince me of beauty.

Didn't I wear overalls every day, while town children, who used to come out our way occasionally, wore clean suits of clothes, and even white waists when it wasn't either Sunday or the Fourth of July? Didn't I play in the dirt and work in the dirt and consort with horses and cows and wild things in the woods, while town children rode in fine carriages and had sidewalks in front of their houses? I used to dream of what I would do for farm relief if ever I got rich. I would cover all farms and woods and pastures with a solid blanket of cement, making one glorious civilized sidewalk, where before had been mud and sandburs and fresh clay. I would make the rural world beautiful!

* * *

But only the other day I was listening to some city folk talk excitedly about apple blossoms they had seen. After my fancy went back to that old farm near Wichita, where I was born and reared. Acres and acres of riotous apple blossoms! A quarter-mile stretch of peach trees, all aglow in the spring sunshine, with pink and glorious blossoms! Cherry tree, row on row, bending down under a benediction of sunlight and bloom! And away down toward the river, hundreds of acres of sandhills, extending as far as the eye could see, one rolling mass of fairy white—plum bushes in blossom!

Then there were the locust trees, that bloomed early. We had three groves of them, and the scent that was wafted from their trailing wreaths of white and cream blossoms brought bees from everywhere, working away to save some of the plenteous honey that dripped from every bud.

* * *

And the red-bud trees, like clusters of fairy beacons among the low hills along the river! They grew wild, and I have not seen in any hot-house blossoms to equal theirs in charm and sweetness.

Beside the fences grew the wild roses, the sensitive roses, and the multitude of other flowers and plants. Weeds, I called them! Well, how few of us, even adults, know when we are living in the midst of beauty!

Reveal Threats To Non-Union Miners

Injunction Hearing In Indiana Court Enters Upon Fifth Day

(International News Service)

INDIANA, Pa., May 16.—Further disclosures of death threats alleged to have been made against non-union miners in the Rossiter mines were expected today as the hearing on the injunction against the United Mine Workers of America entered its fifth day before Judge J. N. Langham, in county court here.

Tony Ross, union organizer, threatened to blow up the homes of miners if they did not quit work, Sam Schripps, former member of the union and one of the 24 witnesses called by the operators testified.

"Don't you know some of these men might cut your face with a knife and afterwards, when you look in a mirror and see your face, you will say, 'that's what I got for being a scab,' " Schripps asserted Ross told him.

BOY SCOUT Activities

TROOP 16.

The American Legion troop 16 held its weekly meeting Monday, May 14. The troop showed a very fine attendance. The meeting was opened by the scout oath and the flag salute.

The meeting was then turned over to the scoutmaster, Edwin C. Hoye. Mr. Hoye instructed the scouts in their tests and preparations were made for an overnight hike which will take place June 1, 1928.

Scribe, Delbert Weis.

TROOP 38.

Troop 38 met in the Second U. P. church Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. A "Parade of the Colors" was held. After a scout game, the patrols held recess. Instructions were given in the second class tests. Several scouts of the troop are expecting to pass their tests shortly. The meeting was closed with the Lord's prayer and announcements by the scoutmaster.

NEURITIS PAINS VANISHED SINCE HE GOT KONJOLA

New Castle Man Tells How The New Medicine Restored His Health.

Seavy Photo

"In the more severe cases of neuritis the pains are piercing—just like hot knives cutting into the nerves", said the Konjola Man, yesterday, at the Love & Megown drug store, 204 East Washington St., New Castle, where he is personally introducing the new medical product, Konjola, to the people of this vicinity.

"Many authorities have stated that the agony of neuritis is likened unto an electrical shock, the shooting pains may effect the sufferer at frequent intervals. Some call the affliction neuralgia, while others say it is like rheumatism, but in either event, it is a terrible affliction and one of the most agonizing diseases mankind is heir to", continued the Konjola Man.

It is surprising what this new medical preparation, Konjola will accomplish in so many cases of neuritis suffering. By invigorating the inner organs and cleansing the system of poisons, this Konjola brings amazing relief to the neuritis sufferer. For instance, just the other day, Mr. James McCart, McClelland Ave., New Castle, made the following statement:

"I had neuritis for a long time", said Mr. McCart, "The pains centered in my arms and shoulders. At times I would feel numb from the tips of my fingers to my elbows, but most of the time, my shoulders would be a solid mass of aches and pains. Many times I would have have to be helped out of bed in the mornings and I never could do my work the way I should. Finally it seemed like my entire back was effected with this terrible disease. My kidneys were very weak and I would have to rise several times during the night. But these were not my only ailments as I was troubled with my stomach. After every meal I would suffer from indigestion pains. With all these miseries to bother me I was very discouraged and was wondering if I would ever be well again.

"I decided to give this Konjola a trial after it had helped my wife so much. It seemed to go to the very source of my trouble. In just a few days the pains were easing up and I kept right on taking this medicine. Now I am in the best of health and no one would never know that I had a sick day in my life. All the neuritis pains are gone and I can do my work without suffering like I did before. My kidneys and stomach are normal and I can hardly realize I ever suffered with these organs. In every way I feel like a different person and I have a lot of faith in Konjola, so I am indorsing it to others so that they may benefit as I have."

The Konjola Man is at the Love & Megown drug store, 204 East Washington St., New Castle, where he is daily meeting the public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy.

Adolphe Menjou Is Married Today To Katherine Carver

Famous Screen Star Wedded To Beautiful Actress In Simple Ceremony

(International News Service)

PARIS, May 16.—Adolphe Menjou and Katherine Carver re-enacted a scene they have often played in together when they were married today, but this time they needed no director.

The dapper-silk-hatted gentleman hero of the films and his beautiful actress bride, however, dispensed with all the show and splendor usually accompanying screen weddings.

They simply went down to the city hall in the Sixteenth ward and went through the bare formalities required by the law. The only witnesses to the wedding were the bride's sister, Miss Margaret Drum, and Charles Campbell, an American attorney and a personal friend of the groom.

Miss Carver was dressed in a grey ensemble and grey felt hat. She also wore a red fox fur piece and a bouquet of orchids. Menjou wore conventional morning attire.

The couple caught a noon train for London.

SUGGESTIONS

Storing Galoshes

Brush and clean the overshoes thoroughly, both inside and out; then set them in a large, clean paper bag and fold the top of the bag over two or three times and paste down with gummed paper or library paste. Your galoshes are now ready to put away and will be clean and free from moths when you need them again next fall.

Ready-Cut Toast

Poached eggs on toast for an invalid are much easier to eat if the toast is first cut in small squares and then buttered, keeping the shape of the slice intact. Place the egg on the toast, which may be easily broken apart by the person in bed.

Buddy Poppies Sale Here May 26

McBride Post In Charge Of Sale Of Poppies In This City

FUND GOES TO AID OF DISABLED SOLDIERS

Annual sale of Buddy Poppies, the work of the disabled veterans of the World War, will be held in this city, Saturday, May 26.

The interesting fact about this sale, which will be conducted under the auspices of Harry L. McBride Post No. 522, Veterans of Foreign Wars, is that every cent, with the exception of a very inconsiderate amount representing the cost of Materials used in making them, will benefit some disabled veteran of the World War.

The first cost of these poppies to the local post is approximately five cents each. This may seem a little high, in spite of the fact that they are superior in appearance and workmanship to those imported from Germany and other foreign countries at one-tenth the cost.

Of this five cents, a very small amount goes for material, one cent goes to the National Home of the Veterans of Foreign Wars in Eaton, Minn., and the balance to the disabled men, who made them.

It must therefore be realized that there will be nothing for local relief of disabled world war veterans unless something more than five cents is given the girl canvassers who will have them for sale on May 26

It is hoped that New Castle will be generous and not only purchase many of the poppies but also give sufficiently for every one purchased to meet the needs of the local disabled men as well as those who make the poppies.

Students cannot all see the masters at work, but they can see the technique by means of pictures.

NOT DARK

We can't speak of Africa, accurately, as the dark continent. The sunlight of progress is falling on a great deal of Africa. This year the South African government is spending $65,000,000 on its railroads. Visiting Africa is no longer an adventure. It is a comfortable journey—unless you prefer the jungle, of which there is plenty left.

CITY LOVERS

The 83 cities of 100,000 or over in the United States contain nearly a third of all our people. And we now have six cities with over a million persons each. Forty years ago 35 per cent of the people lived in towns and cities. Today more than half do.

In a way it is a hopeful sign that people like to live close to each other and to work co-operatively. They realize their dependence, and they realize that great success can come through learning to live intelligently together.

It is an equally good sign for the human race that there are still men and women who love to till the soil and find rest for their souls in open spaces. Fortunately for millions of us there will always be folks, and plenty of them, who like the country best.

* * *

WHY TEN PER CENT?

A wealthy St. Louis man, dying a short time ago, remarked in his will that for 40 years he had given 10 per cent of his income to charity. He felt he had discharged his obligation and he made no further provision for charitable giving. Many will say he did well in giving away 10 per cent of his income. And he deserves credit for being more generous than many others. But the fact remains that a man does not necessarily discharge his obligation to the community or to his own conscience by giving away any stated per cent. In the case of some men and women ten per cent of income would not represent a particle of sacrifice.

Generosity and unselfishness cannot be mathematically computed. Giving which represents no sacrifice whatever deserves much less praise than the giving which earns the classification of "inconvenient service".

PETER'S ADVENTURES IN ANIMAL LAND

BY MRS. FLORENCE SMITH VINCENT

THE OPEN WINDOW

The twig on which Oriole perched swayed with his chuckling and the bird whispered to Peter, who had joined him:

"That ought to settle Aunt Busybody, but it will not. She'll have more to say, but wifie will have the last word of the argument, just see if she doesn't. Ssh! Aunt Busy-body's at it again!"

"Behind the times, indeed! I like that. I am older than you, niece, to be sure, but I am just as clever as you are, young lady. I have always managed to take care of my own affairs."

"Of course you have, and you have always found time to poke your nose into other birds' business, too," replied Mrs. Oriole, rudely. "Now you may as well save your breath, Auntie! The hammock is swung and lashed to the twigs and the window is there and there it shall stay.

"By the way, Aunt, didn't you tell me how once, when you were brooding, a squirrel ran down the branch and attacked you in the entrance of the nest, and what a terrible time you had trying to keep out of his way? If the door at the top had been a bit wider so he could have squeezed his body through he would have harmed you, wouldn't he?"

"He certainly would have—might have bitten off my head for all I know!" agreed Aunt Busy-body.

"My! When I think of it even now my feathers stand on end. I certainly was frightened. How I did dodge and crouch and make myself as tiny as I could to keep out of his way. And how glad I was when at last he gave it up as a bad job and scampered off.

"But why do you ask me that now? What has that got to do with what we were talking about?"

"Oh, not much, only I was just thinking that nothing like that could ever happen to me. If ever a squirrel or a screech owl surprises me in the nest all I shall have to do is to fly out the window. That will be an easy way of escape." Mrs. Oriole sounded quite well satisfied with herself.

"H-h-m! I never thought about that! I don't believe your window idea is so bad, after all, niece! I think I'll make a few visits on the neighbors and let them know what a clever niece I have. What's the use of keeping a good thing to yourself. Let others know about it, I say."

Peter heard a whir of wings and guessed rightly Aunt Oriole was off to tell the news.

PLAN TO ADOPT FLYING RULES

(From News Bureau (State Capital))

HARRISBURG, May 16.—A meeting of the Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission is expected to be held very shortly for the purpose of adopting rules to govern flying in this state. Delay on the part of the Federal government in revising its rules has caused the State body to postpone any definite action.

The State Board desires to have its rules conform in a large measure to those of the department of Commerce. It was for that reason that the Pennsylvania rules have not been adopted some time past.

With the number of air transport companies increasing the State Board desires to have its rules adopted and put in force at an early date.

All that is needed to make trans-Atlantic flight practicable is a wider distribution of barren islands.

Julius Rosenwald Gives Two Million To Charity

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, May 16.—The unique philosophy which guides Julius Rosenwald in his world-famous philanthropies was announced today in explanation of Mr. Rosenwald's latest gift of $2,000,000 to charity.

The doctrine in a nutshell is: "Do Good Now."

In announcing the $2,000,000 gift to the Julius Rosenwald Fund, the famous "mailorder" millionaires requested that the entire fund, exceeding $20,000,000, be expended within 25 years after his death.

Mr. Rosenwald explained that it is his belief that future generations should provide for their own philanthropic needs. He scored long-time endowments and trust funds and asked that charity be dispensed where it is needed in the present.

"Times are changing so rapidly it is impossible for us to predict what the need of future generations is going to be," he said. "For that reason I have asked the trustees of the Rosenwald Fund to give away the entire fund of more than $20,000,000 within twenty-five years after my death."

Mr. Rosenwald said he realized that such a stipulation was contrary to current practices, adding:

"I believe, however, that the greatest good can come through the use of the entire sum, both principal and interest, by the present generation. In keeping with that ideal I have refrained from establishing endowments for universities and other institutions to which I have given gifts apart from the fund."

"Who knows?" he concluded, "some day out universities may be self supporting.

Pair Plan To Circle World In Plane And Ship For New Record

Theatrical Producer And Stunt Flier Plan 21-Day Trip Around Globe

Will Hop Off From New York On June 9; Hope To Set New Record

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 16.—Attempting to set a new speed record for a trip around the world, John Henry Mears, theatrical producer, and Charles B. D. Collyer, stunt flyer of Richmond, Va., will leave here June 9, to circle the globe by airplane and ship, they announced today.

The two hope to be back in New York, after their 20,000 miles journey, in 21 days. Mears held the former record for a round-the-world trip, having completely circled the earth in 35 days in 1913, this mark stood for 13 years, the Evan-Wells expedition making the trip in 35 days in 1926.

Mears and Collyer proposed to hop off from here at daybreak, the morning of June 9, in their "folding plane," the City of New York. They expect to catch the liner, Ile de France, 200 miles at sea and complete the tran-Atlantic journey on that ship.

After flying across Europe, Russia and the Orient their schedule would place them in Tokio in time to catch the "Empress of Canada" for Victoria, B. C., where they would take to the air again in the last series of flights to New York.

Collyer is to act as pilot, with Mears relieving him when necessary. Collyer is well known in aviation circles and was the first man to fly between Chicago and Minneapolis at night, having accomplished this feat in 1923. The Soviet government has consented to aid the flyers in their trip across Russia and Siberia, they say.

The Planet Saturn

By S. S. MYERS

"I have been quite interested in your articles on astronomy appearing in the New Castle News. Being divested of technicalities they enable some of us who know very little about the subject to understand it. I see by a squib in a Pittsburgh paper that Saturn will occupy a prominent place in the sky during the coming months. Will you kindly tell us something about it?"

(J. H. L. New Castle, Pa.)

When viewed through a telescope Saturn is one of the most beautiful objects in the heavens. During the next three or four months it will be in such a position that the rings can be plainly seen. That is, its axis will be tilted at an angle giving a full view of the rings. When the rings are edgwise toward us we cannot see them at all except as they may appear like two small knobs, one at either side of the planet.

The distance of Saturn from the sun is 886,000,000 miles, and its diameter is 76,000 miles. Its year is as long as twenty-nine and a half of our years, while its days are ten hours and fourteen minutes long. Its average density, taking the planet as a whole, is only one-eighth that of the earth, which is considerably less than water. It is surrounded by a dense envelop of clouds, and what lies beneath them is a mystery. It is not likely that any kind of life exists there—at least no vegetable or animal life as we know it.

The most interesting feature of Saturn is the three immense rings surrounding it in the plane of the equator. The diameter of the outer ring 173,000 miles. It is 10,000 miles wide and about two miles thick. Between it and the middle ring is a space of 2,200 miles. The middle ring is 17,500 miles wide. The two outer rings are of a yellow hue like the body of the planet. The inner ring is 9,500 miles wide, very dark, and there appears to be no division between it and the middle ring. The space between the inner ring and the body of the planet is 7,000 miles.

There has been considerable speculation as to the structure of these rings, but there is a consensus of opinion among astronomers that they are composed of small particles of solid matter. It is quite probable that the rings of Saturn was but one ring at first, and that the matter was so evenly balanced that no center of gravity was established. Meanwhile, the inner portion, inclined to move faster that the outer portion, shrank away by attraction toward the planet causing the space between the two rings. Just what caused these rings no one knows for a certainty. According to the Laplacian theory they may have been thrown off from the main body, but it is more likely that the original ring came that way from the sun with the mass that forms the body of the planet, like the ring caused by a puff of smoke emitted from the smoke stack of a locomotive. In addition to its rings Saturn also has eight moons, the largest of which is four times as large as our moon.

North Beaver Pupil Writes Clever Story

Pupils of the North Beaver consolidated school will eventually go into many lines of work as they grow older. Just now they are very busy doing their work as students in that school, except that occasionally they diverge slightly to show some natural talent. Among other things done at this busy school is the writing of stories, in which the writers exercise their power of imagination.

One of the most interesting of these stories by pupils of that school is that of John Wallace, aged 12, a student in grade 8. His story is entitled "My Trip to the Polar Region."

The story follows:

My Trip to the Polar Regions.

As I went out of the house just ready for the bus to the flying field, I received a great surprise. I was jerked into the air by the seat of my pants and as I had not been expecting this to happen I yelled like a maniac. I kept mounting into the sky as fast as a gull. Up and up I went until I could hear the hum of a number of electric motors for I was familiar with the sound. I could not see above me as I was suspended perpendicularly.

Suddenly I was jerked into the pilot room of an airship. Accidentally, the anchor of the airship had caught me as it had been pulled up I gazed up at the man who had pulled me up and whom should I see but my old friend Commander Richard Byrd. His trip over the South Pole in 1928 had made him hungry for more adventure and he was now hurrying to the South Pole in his new airship, the "Speedy Byrd".

After I had been told this we went into another large compartment where the crew of 100 men was eating. As the airship was propelled by five 600-horsepower motors and held aloft by helium gas, quite a few men were needed. Electricity was generated by two large engines, chiefly made of aluminum, using gassified alcohol for fuel. I heard from the engineer's report that we were going over 400 miles per hour. At the rate the airship was going we would soon reach our destination for we had been traveling for sometime. All went well until we reached the 89th degree of latitude. Suddenly the airship descended with a sickening dive. The forward motor had gone dead. Everyone put on his polar suit and I put on a spare one for we were in a very cold region.

The pilot peered into the distance to find a landing place.

"Land, ho," was his answer to the commander's query. We were still going at a high rate of speed but safely descended upon the land in sight. When we landed we found that the island was inhabited by a handful of civilized people.

These people were the only persons left of the 1929 Nobile expedition. When they had been passing over the island they had had motor trouble and had to descend. In landing, the dirigible that they were in had been wrecked beyond repair. They had lived in the fashion like the Eskimos lived that they had seen on Spitzbergen islarid.

The men of our airship had found the necessary repairs for our airship and with the exiles who had lived on the island for 12 years, we made an uneventful trip home.

It is easy for a girl to find a husband. The difficult problem is to find a single man.

Narrow mind: So called because an idea, once in, hasn't room to turn around or change.

High School Pupils See Educational Film

An educational motion picture, entitled "The Merchant of Maysville," was shown to the students of the Senior High school by the commercial department Tuesday.

The film, one dealing with business, shows how a certain merchant on the verge of failure, listens to the wise counsel of his wife and son, changes his methods of doing business, improves his practices, so that in time the store flourishes and produces a good profit.

According to the head of the commercial department, the students who witnessed the showing of the film expressed deep satisfaction with the picture.

Airplane And Train Combination Means New Travel Method

Hope To Inaugurate Coast-To-Coast Travel By Air And Train Within Four Months

Rates For New Passenger Service To Coast About Same As Present

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, May 16.—Method of travel in the United States may be revolutionized by the new air and rail system which the newly-formed Transcontinental Air Transport, Inc., will begin operating on a forty-eight hour schedule between New York and Los Angeles within the next few months.

Eventually, backers of the project believe, every principal city in the country will be hooked up with the main transcontinental line. As outlined by International News Service yesterday passengers will be carried on trains at night and on planes in the daytime, going by train from New York to Columbus, Ohio, flying from there to Wichita, Kansas, sleeping on a train to a point in New Mexico and then flying to Los Angeles.

Cost Is Normal.

The cost of the transcontinental trip will be a little more than the present rates for an all-rail trip with drawing room accommodations. Travel will be both ways, and the time it takes to go from the Atlantic to the Pacific—and vice versa—will be cut in half.

Speaking of the future—after the Transcontinental line is operating smoothly—C. M. Keys, president of the new company, who is also head of the Curtis Aeroplane and Motor Corporation, said today:

"Eventually the company plans to inaugurate additional air services, particularly in the eastern and middle western states, connecting the Transcontinental route with all principal cities.

"Among the other routes now in contemplation is a branch from Chicago to the Twin Cities. St. Louis and Kansas City will be on the Transcontinental line, and other western metropolises will eventually be linked to the line either by railroad or airplane connection.

Good Connections.

"It is the intention to draw traffic both north and south to feed the main artery of travel. Airplane schedules will be so adapted as to make convenient connections with limited trains."

President Keys said that the New York to Los Angeles route was selected for the first step in the system because it would permit the maximum of comfort and safety to passengers. No night flying is involved. The rates for the air-rail trip will be, according to Keys "at a reasonable advance over the present Transcontinental railroad rates."

(The present railroad rate from New York to Los Angeles is $109.77. Keys, however, was figuring on the railroad rate with drawing room accommodations).

Mercer Man Will Receive Pension

By GEORGE H. MANNING
Washington Correspondent of The News

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 16.—Alban D. Philson of Mercer will receive a pension at the rate of $30 a month if the Senate passes the pension bill, which has already passed the House of Representatives.

Philson served in the United States navy during the war with Spain and was honorably discharged on August 2, 1898. During his period of service he was not treated for illness or fever, which developed afterward and has incapacitated Philbin for manual labor of any kind. He is 49 years old, married and has half interest in a small property. Physicians testified before the House committee that when Philbin enlisted in the navy he was sound mentally and physically, but since his discharge he has suffered from malarial poisoning, dizziness and mental derangement. His condition is such, they claimed, that he is unable to earn a living.

Dr. Chulmann, one of the specialists attending the foreign secretary, referred to such rumors as "fables".

Prof. Hermann Zondek, another specialist said that the patient's intestinal poisoning was probably due to a recent meal he had eaten.

The police department received quite a number of accident reports in the past 24 hours.

FALSE FIRE ALARM AROUSES BOROUGH

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., May 16.—New Wilmington authorities are on the trail of the persons who turned in a false alarm of fire in the village last night.

The fire bell was rung, and the volunteer firemen responded but there was no fire.

This is a most serious law violation on the part of those responsible for turning in the false alarm, and the authorities are much aroused over the incident.

The law will be enforced to the limit, the authorities say, if the guilty parties are found.

Holy Name Smoker Thursday Night

Great Program To Be Presented At King Humbert Hall

On Thursday evening, May 17, at 8 p. m., members of the Holy Name society of St. Vitus church will be entertained at a smoker and luncheon at the King Humbert hall. This is the first entertainment to be held by the society and plans to make this initial attempt a big success have been going forward for some time. A varied program, including several addresses, music, boxing exhibitions, and luncheon, has been arranged for the evening and a general good time is in store for all those present.

The Rev. Fr. J. Dudley Nee, assistant pastor at St. Mary's church and district Spiritual Advisor of the society, and Major Guy J. Wadlinger, widely known as a speaker of ability, will give the principal addresses of the evening. Father Nee will give a brief history of the Holy Name society from its inception to the present day, and will speak on its aims and purposes, and the spiritual benefits derived from faithful fulfillment of the Holy Name pledge. Major Wadlinger will speak on the duties of a Catholic as a citizen, and the effect the membership in the society on the individual character of member and one's standing in the community. Father N. DeMita, pastor of St. Vitus church will also give a brief talk stressing the necessity of fulfilling the requirements of membership in the society.

Besides the addresses, an exceptionally good entertainment has been arranged for the evening, and on the program will appear the Copple brothers, popular favorites on the mandolin and guitar; Ralph Monico, saxophone soloist, in several numbers on this popular instrument; Michael Turco, with several vocal numbers with guitar accompaniment; Harry Ross, in a dance act of his own; and Steve Griffith, who will render several vocal selections with piano accompaniment.

After the musical entertainment, luncheon will be served and a general "get acquainted" meeting will take place. This will then be followed by boxing exhibitions. Emmett Rocco, well known and popular boxer, had consented to appear in exhibition, but, unfortunately, Emmett injured one of his hands in a recent bout and is not permitted to don the gloves. However, willing to help in any way possible, he has consented to act as referee in the bouts, and bring along six of his "stable-mates" to stage three bouts. Two other bouts have been arranged by Frank Ross, local promoter. The boys are all evenly matched and no doubt will provide plenty of entertainment.

The smoker is free to all members of the Holy Name Society of St. Vitus church, and to all young men of the parish who desire to become members. It will be necessary for any prospective member to be accompanied and sponsored by a present member.

The St. Vitus branch of the Society has been organized since the first of the year and considerable interest in the society has been manifested by the men of the parish since its organization. The membership now exceed three hundred, and this number will be further increased at the smoker Thursday evening. This entertainment will bring the members to-gether and strengthen the ties of fraternal friendship within the society.

The present officers of the society are:

President—C. L. Ross.
Secretary—Nick Casalandra.
Treasurer—Carl Scungio.
Masters of Ceremonies—Harry Ross and Guy Greco.
Prefects—Frank Mastren, Thos. Maglieri, A. Villano, G. Bertucci, J. DeFonso, D. Maciariello, D. Guido, P. Miscimari, P. Panella, A. Mastrangelo, S. Isabella, P. George, A. DiSalvo, J. Mastrangelo, D. Cioffi, A. Basile, T. Basile.
Spiritual advisor—Rev. Fr. Patrick DiRenna.

Crippled Youth Is Sentenced To Die In Electric Chair

(International News Service)

SCRANTON, Pa., May 16.—Joseph Kameniski, 20, who shot and killed Dr. Gerald Kelly at Jessup on March 14, was sentenced today to die in the electric chair by Judges E. C. Newcomb and William Leach.

Kameniski pleaded guilty when arraigned a week ago. He received the sentence with no display of emotion, calmly chewing gum and looking unconcerned.

The youth lost a leg in a mine accident three years ago. Dr. Kelly attended him at the time. After the shooting Kameniski told police "I shot him because he cut off my leg."

He will be held in the Lackawanna county jail here until the date of execution has been set by Governor John S. Fisher.

THREE BOYS ADMIT ATTEMPTED THEFT

The three 14-year-old boys who were arrested in connection with the attempted theft of tires at the Braatz service station on Croton avenue, finally admitted Tuesday afternoon to the police that they had planned to steal one tire and sell it in order to secure funds with which to go to a moving picture show. They were advised by the mayor of the seriousness of their offense and were allowed to go this time with the understanding that if brought in again they would get the limit.

New Castle Men See Derby Men

Davis, Rhodes, Dilks Greet Runners At Erie On Tuesday

"RED" GRANGE HAS GOOD WORD FOR CITY

"Sure I have heard of you. And I have heard of the Dilks Booster association at New Castle through the boys. All of them speak so highly of the city that boosts a runner in the way that New Castle boosted Dilks while he was with us."

These were the words of Red Grange with C. C. Pyle's Bunion Derby when J. Garfield Davis met him at Erie yesterday afternoon. Grange continued to speak highly of New Castle throughout the interview.

Davis, with Edward McMillin, Wm. Rhodes and Lin Dilks visited with the runners for more than an hour and talked with Arthur Newton the South African runner who is well to the head of the procession. They also gave him a box of cigars as a token of appreciation for the aid that he had given to Dilks when the local runner was in distress with a pulled tendon.

Another friend of Dilks, Constant, who is walking against Gunn also was seen and talked to by Dilks. At the present time he is leading Gunn by 22 hours averaging 4.82 miles an hour. It looks as if he will win says Davis and there is no question but that he is championship material.

Who will win the race? is the question which is being asked the runners allong the line. The general consensus of opinion, says Davis, points to Payne as the winner of the race. He believes, after interviewing the runners that they will finish in the order in which they are running now. All of them speak very highly of the support which is being given to them by the Elks clubs along the route.

No complaint is being made about the food and lodging which is offered to the runners now, says Davis. The only thing that the runners want, he asserts, is reduced mileage, but the management will not lessen the controls.

All of the runners were enthusiastic in their acclaim of Lin Dilks, New Castle's entry in the race. The reason that he did not stick with the race until the end, they say, is because when he himself was in bad shape, he did not take care of himself in the evenings, but helped other runners who were in a worse way than himself.

The greatest craving of the men in the race, Davis asserts, is for sweets. One man has averaged 25 bottles of soft drinks ever since he left Chicago, and on one day he ate two quarts of ice cream in addition to the pop. Sweets help them to keep up their vitality during the long grind.

Firemen Called To Finch Street

Blaze Does Damage Amounting To About $600 At Midnight

A fire loss of approximately $575 was sustained last night by Clarence Parkinson, 1219 Finch street, as a result of a fire said to have been caused when something went wrong with a chicken brooder, which was in use in the chickencoop of Mr. Parkinson.

The firemen were called to the scene by an alarm from box 48 at 11:35 p. m. The fire started in the chickencoop and spread to the garage adjoining. Both buildings were destroyed at an estimated loss of $500, while the contents burned were valued at $75.

People in the vicinity of 813 Butler avenue, noticed a blaze in the rear of that place last night and telephoned in a call for the firemen. Box 47 was sounded. The firemen on their arrival found that the blaze was caused by a bonfire built by some children of the district.

An alarm at 4:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from box 72 called the firemen to the Orchard and Cedar street district of the Seventh ward, where the firemen found it necessary to fight a grass fire.

School Board To Award Contract For Steam Heat

At a meeting of the school directors of Slippery Rock township held at Princeton on Tuesday evening, May 15, it was decided to use a steam system of heating and a unit system of ventilating in the new consolidated school building for the township being built near Princeton.

The contract for the heating and ventilating has been awarded to the R. T. Withers Sons company of New Castle.

At the same meeting a decision was made to advertise for bids on the additional four rooms of the building, only four rooms and the auditorium being included in the bids that were accepted before. Now with the financing of the project settled by the meeting on Monday night there need be nothing in the way of finishing the other four rooms so that both grades and high school can be housed in the same building.

Following a trail of blood leading from the porch her husband found her crumpled body lying in the kitchen where it had been dragged by the murderer.

Mrs. Thomas was killed shortly after she had returned from the home of a neighbor. Although no suspicious persons were seen in the neighborhood, neighbors reported hearing two shots.

The assailant locked the door of the house to hide his crime, police believe. It was necessary to break in to reach the body.

Credit Men Tell Of Their Problems

Delegates Have Round Table Conference At Convention This Morning

HARRISBURG MAN IS AFTERNOON SPEAKER

A round table discussion of credit bureau service featured this morning's session of the annual convention of the Associated Credit Bureaus of Pennsylvania, which is being held today in the directors room of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce.

The pros and cons of the Garnishee law, which permits the attachment of wages, and which is now one of the greatest problems confronting credit bureau service was discussed by the delegates to the convention. Many expressed opinions favoring the adoption of the law in Pennsylvania, while still others objected to it strenuously. The chiefest objection to the law is, according to Ray F. Hall, manager of the New Castle Credit Exchange, that it does not give the man who is temporarily unfortunate a proper chance to come back.

Many of the members spoke this morning, telling the peculiar problems which confront their particular bureaus.

At the afternoon session, which began at 1:30, James D. Hays, manager of the Harrisburg Credit Bureau spoke to the delegates on "Increasing the efficiency of the State Association." This was followed by a discussion, led by State President A. B. Buckeridge, stressing how managers of one bureau can help the manager of another bureau as well as themselves. How to give the greatest aid and earn the greatest respect from bureau members and the merchant public was also discussed. A general discussion of the methods of compiling complete credit reports was next held. Following a speech by W. J. Harris, manager of the Johnstown Credit Bureau on "The Trend Toward Credit Bureau Collection Service," the convention was adjourned.

Arrest Woman In New York City On Charge Of Murder

Woman Wanted For Slaying Of Man In Nevada Nabbed By New York Police

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 16.—Charged with assisting in the murder of a Nevada man, whose body was then cremated, Mrs. Kathryn White, attractive 32-year-old brunette, was held by police here today as a fugitive from Elko, Nev., following her arrest last night.

The arrest was asked by the chief of police at Elko. Information which accompanied the request and the woman's description, said she was suspected, with her husband, of shooting a man to death May 6 and then burning the body.

In the woman's hotel room detectives found $500 in cash, a passport and a steamship ticket to Ireland. The prisoner insisted she had never heard of the man whom she is alleged to have killed.

Credit Men Hear Able Addresses

Phases Of Credit Bureau Work Outlined At State Convention Session

NEW CASTLE MAN AMONG SPEAKERS

The reservation of editorial space for each credit bureau manager to give pointers to his clientele in the bulletin which each exchange publishes once a week was recommended by Ray F. Hall manager of the New Castle Credit Exchange who addressed the delegates to the annual convention of the Associated Credit Bureaus of Pennsylvania at the Tuesday afternoon session, held in the director's room of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce.

"Each bulletin should carry a message to the membership of the bureau," commented Mr. Hall, "and that message should be worth while. Try to get the point of view of each member. This will help you and will help them. It is your bulletin and it is up to you to see that it is the best bulletin in the state."

A. B. Buckeridge manager of the Pittsburgh Credit Bureau and president of the state association next spoke on "Observations of Credit Bureau Managers" which was followed by a discussion. After the address of Mr. Buckeridge, W. L. Daniels of Lewistown and W. A. Bush of Pittsburgh, spoke on "Should Credit Bureau Managers Enter into Other Civic Activities?" It was decided that as the life of a credit bureau manager is of necessity a public one, he should enter into all of the civic activities; he should belong to one of the service organizations and that he should do all in his power to help his city in a civic way.

E. H. Ward of Uniontown, next spoke on "Selling Bureau Service" which was followed by a general discussion of the problems confronting a credit manager which was led by Mr. Buckeridge. At 5 o'clock the session adjourned.

Woodmen To Present "Hour Glass" Monday

Ceaselessly the scroll of time unrolls, bringing to every mortal the changes to which are attached whatever of interest life may hold. The hour glass, which symbolizes the passing of time, supplies the title for a photoplay as told in motion pictures, which will help to bring to every man who is, or hopes to become head of a family a fuller realization of his responsibilities.

First presentation of "The Hour Glass" in New Castle will be given at Woodmen hall, May 21, at 8 o'clock. It will be shown under the auspices of New Castle Camp, Modern Woodmen of America, by special arrangement with the national headquarters at Rock Island, Ill.

This is a brand new three-reel film with unusual spectacular features and true-to-life action. Part of the story was filmed at the Society's free Sanatorium near Colorado Springs where the bright sun and vivid color contrast make the camera so effective.

Admission will be free and the public is invited to come as guests of New Castle Camp.

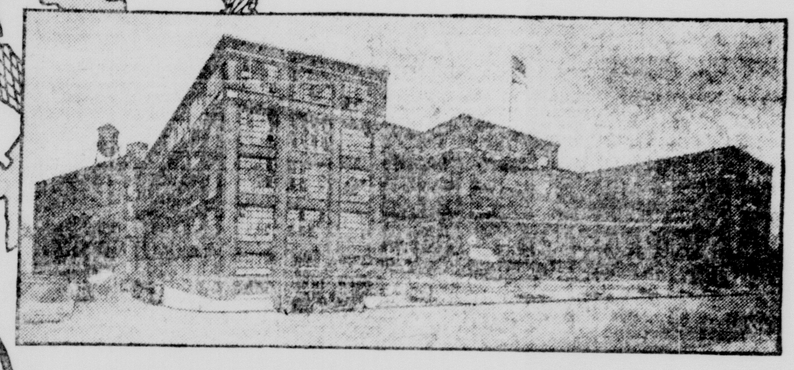
RICHMAN'S CLOTHES

Established 1879

ALL $22.50



The Richman Main Factory in Cleveland—here, and in our Lorain factory, we make ALL the clothes we sell "direct from our factory to you"—2600 men and women who own a $6,000,000.00 interest in this company tailor the superb quality into Richman's Clothes.

Richman's Clothes are not made to meet a price—but because they have given $22.50 the normal buying power of $40, or more, this price mark is widely imitated.

Never before in our half century's clothes making experience has it been possible for us, or any other house, to sell as good a suit for $22.50 as we can today.

Only the far reaching power of Richman resources could produce clothes so faultlessly styled, so rich in woolen quality, so beautifully tailored, to sell at $22.50.

This is not the price of a limited lot of suits advertised to bring you into our store—$22.50 is the standard Richman price—it gives you your choice of any suit, topcoat or tuxedo suit in any Richman store—nothing is reserved—nothing sold at a higher price.

And here you will find a greater variety of new styles and fabrics, a more complete range of sizes and proportions at $22.50 than others offer at all prices combined.

Blames Uncle Sam For Market Plunging

By ROBERT S. THORNBURGH.
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Uncle Sam is responsible for the phenomenal speculative activities of the New York and other stock markets.

Despite threats of legislative action to curb speculation, increase of rediscount rates at some of the reserve banks and frowns of disapproval from certain quarters in congress, the government is indirectly furnishing the cash to make the markets hum as they never hummed before.

This view was taken by a number of the government's leading financial experts who attributed to the following factors the long continued "bull" market:

1.—Retirement of over a billion dollars a year in the public debt.

2.—Reduction of surtaxes in 1924 and 1926, enabling the extremely wealthy to invest in stocks instead of taking refuge in tax-exempt securities.

3.—Release of millions of dollars of corporate surpluses in the form of dividends—directly the result of lower surtaxes.

Experts said that these three postwar developments have provided a gigantic surplus of capital far in excess of the requirements of productive business, either domestic or foreign and that naturally the unemployed funds found their way to the stock markets. Speculative loans from member banks of the federal reserve system in New York alone are close to $5,000,000,000—five times the pre-war national debt.

Army Enlistment Is Again Open

Opportunities For Young Men To Travel And Learn A Good Trade

It is now possible for the young men of the country to enlist in the army and not only serve their country, but also gain for themselves a good trade and a chance to travel and see considerable of the world.

The recruiting station in the city building is again open to receive enlistments, after being closed for some time. Now is the time for the young man contemplating army service to get the good things of the service and get to go to the places that are most enjoyable.

Present openings in the service may last but a few days at best. At the present time enlistments may be made for the west coast and Hawaiian islands.

Those interested should get in touch with the recruiting officer at the city hall building.

WHERE AVERAGE PERSON SPENDS YEARLY BUDGET

Where the pay check goes each month—or each year, if one wishes to count time and money by years—was explained today by James D. Hays, manager of the Harrisburg Credit Bureau, vice president of the Associated Credit Bureaus of Pennsylvania and state chairman to the National Retailers' Credit association.

"It is surprising where the money goes," stated Mr. Hays, "and so, to find out, I have compiled the following figures, which are based on consumption for 1927. Of course, they are averages, but averages tell the story. The average person, regardless of age, spends each year:

$68.17 for groceries.
$20.89 for furniture.
$10.71 for hardware.
$7.52 for shoes.
$6.72 for jewelry
$4.53 for tobacco.
$13.93 for drugs.
$13.50 for men's wear.
$8.31 for candy.
$9.44 for women's wear.
$5.58 for automobile accessories.
$1.21 for radio.
$104.21 in department stores."

And so, the old argument against the expensiveness of women's clothes is effectively spiked. The average woman spends four dollars a year less for clothes than does her husband.

Another interesting thing has been noted by Mr. Hays. In 1907, the per capita consumption of meat in a year was 168.6 pounds. In 1927, this dropped to 153.1 pounds. In 1917, the consumption reached the low mark of 131 pounds to a person during the year.

Ask Modification Of Subpoenas In Demanding Records

Pittsburgh Officials, Including Mayor, Seek To Have Order Modified

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, May 16.—Characterizing the subpoenaes demanding that all police records be brought before the federal grand jury investigating liquor violations in Pittsburgh as "vague and indefinite" and "impossible of performance," Mayor Charles H. Kline, Director of Public Safety James M. Clark and City Solicitor Charles A. Waldenschmidt today presented a petition to Judge F. P. Schoonmaker asking that the subpoenaes be modified.

A truck would be necessary to bring in all the records asked, the city officials declared.

While refusing to modify the terms of the subpoenas, it was agreed by counsel that only records needed in the investigation need be produced, according to authorities. The city officials assured the government that all records needed would be readily produced.

MANY BOYS AT CIRCUS GROUNDS

Elephants Will Have Several Attendants If All Get Jobs Of Aiding

At Mahoning school Tuesday afternoon about 2 o'clock nearly 100 boys had signed a paper of agreement that they wished to try for jobs at the circus this morning. Before the afternoon was ended the list of names would at least reach a hundred and probably more while there were some at Lawrence school who wished to go.

Circus day does not come very often and each time boys are always anxious to try for jobs probably feeding elephants which is the most common or poplar. Each elephant at the circus will be treated royally and have several attendants if all these boys get a job.

This morning the boys had a long wait as many of them were at the grounds probably at 5 o'clock and the circus train did not get in until between 8 and 9 o'clock.

In the article of agreement they signed the boys who did not get jobs were to return to school at 9 o'clock while those who did succeed were to return to school at noon and show their "comps" and thus be excused for the afternoon. This worked quite well last year at the school but this morning the circus train did not get in until late.

Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Hurd, Only American Survivor In British Golf Play

(International News Service)

HUNSTANTON, NORFOLK, Eng., May 16—Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Hurd of Philadelphia was the only American to survive the fourth round of the British open golf championship, when in her first match today she defeated Miss Alice Dobson, a fine English golfer, five up and three to play.

Long experience enabled Mrs. Hurd, who is a former American champion, to overcome the severe weather conditions, a combination of wind and cold rain, and she was never off the fairway throughout the match.

Returns From Visit To Game Refuge

Frank Johnston Spends Two Weeks At State Game Refuge

Frank Johnston, game protector in Lawrence county, has just returned back to this district, after spending two weeks in the state game refuge and propogation center in Westmoreland county. He and the other game protectors of eight counties of which Lawrence is a part, have been spending considerable time in the game refuge setting bantams on ring-necked pheasant eggs and assisting in other work of a similar character.

The two weeks spent there, according to Game Protector Johnston, were filled with genuine hard work but it will mean more and better game in the coming seasons.

The counties included in the district are Lawrence, Beaver, Butler, Washington, Green, Allegheny, Fayette, Somerset and Westmoreland.

Indications are that there will be a large number of ring-necked pheasants available for the hunting season next fall. Other types of small game appear to be getting along fine and there is no reason to expect other than a good hunting season during the coming fall.

Colleges have their good points, but they're turning out too many bond salesmen and not enough good southpaws.

Mr. Coolidge seems reluctant to use words of any kind, but especially the six: "I will not accept the nomination."

At Circus Ground During Day

Scenes like this were enacted this morning when the Hagenbeck-Wallace circus came to the Cedar and Mahoning circus grounds at an early hour, via the Erie railroad from Meadville, Pa.

Hagenbeck-Wallace is known as "the highest class circus on earth" and it brings countless features and novelties from all over the world. Among the vast array of acts will be the famous Riding Davenports, the Flying Wards, the Ellet Girls, the Teeter Sisters, the Slayman All Arabs, Boston Brothers and the wild animal displays by Clyde Beatty, Capt. Bernardo, John Tiebor and Cheerful Gardner.

Special emphasis has been placed on the horse displays and Hagenbeck-Wallace claims to have an equine show equal to that offered in any of the Metropolitan cities. Bob Norton and H. J. McFarland trained the thoroughbreds and two score of pretty girls will ride them.

Dog Poisoner Being Hunted

Roused to a high pitch of feeling over the poisoning of six valuable pet dogs, the residents of Pine, Court and Walnut streets are preparing to take drastic action against the poisoners if any clues can be secured.

E. M. Murray, one of the residents whose dog was poisoned, today advertises in The News, a reward of $25.00 for information leading to the arrest of the guilty person or persons.

In the past ten days or two weeks, six dogs have met the wrath of the poisoner. Among them are the dogs of Miss Helen Minnick, Arthur Zeitler, E. M. Murray and others, and the entire neighborhood is aroused.

Congress Preparing For Negro's Entrance, First In Many Years

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Washington Correspondent for Central Press and New Castle News

WASHINGTON, May 16—The prospect—indeed, the practical certainty—that a negro—Oscar de Priest, will succeed the late Martin B. Madden as one of Chicago's representatives in the next Congress is giving the southern contingent on Capitol Hill quite a bit to think about.

In fact, some northern members are wondering whether de Priest's advent in Washington won't lead to difficult political complications.

Southern negroes in the House of Representatives are no new thing. There have been 20 of them, first and last, not to mention a couple of senators. De Priest, however, if he comes, will be the first one—but probably by no means the last—from the North.

* * *

The new situation will be distinctly different from the old one.

Negro voting, it's pretty well recognized, is discouraged south of the Mason-Dixon' line. Even when, due to post-civil war conditions, a few colored men were being elected to Congress, it was tacitly understood that it would be stopped as soon as possible—as it was before this century opened—and hasn't been repeated.

In the northern states, wherever African ballots are available in considerable numbers, they're wanted.

Hitherto they haven't been very liberally paid for in nominations, because it's only recently that there have been sufficient accumulations of them to be valuable, but they'll have to be, once it's started, and it appears to have started now in Chicago.

* * *

The Windy City certainly has a sure-fire black congressional district.

So has New York, which presumably will be heard from next.

Cleveland has one, or pretty nearly.

According to estimates, a dozen or 15 northern districts have colored blocs sufficiently formidable to command at least respectful attention.

* * *

It's an unprecedented state of affairs—about 10 years old—since the shift in negro population began, from southern plantations to northern industrial centers.

Politicians hadn't realized it. They're quite positive the negroes hadn't.

The difficulty Congressman Madden ran into when he sought renomination in his first Illinois district this spring was an eye-opener. Then followed his death and the district's definite surrender to a colored candidate.

* * *

The ice having been broken, the congressional prophets look to see the negroes demanding all that's coming to them everywhere they think they can get it.

As they visualize the future, the black congressman from the North won't find himself in the position of hanging precariously onto office until times change, as his southern predecessor did; he'll be rather surer of a permanency than the average white representative, and may become a real power in Washington.

If so, to just what extent he'll interest himself in the political welfare of his brethren in Dixie is the problem.

The idea of a negro member of real ability and influence, telling Congress all he has on his mind concerning the southern status of the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments, can't but give rise to forebodings of a great plenty of ill feeling in the House of Representatives.

How To Achieve Beauty

By MME. HELENE RUBINSTEIN
Noted Beauty Expert

IMPORTANCE OF CLOTHES TO BEAUTY

Most women know that there are distinct types of clothes which are especially designed for the varying figures. Dress manufacturers expend thousand of dollars yearly in the salaries of designers who are clever in "line"—who can take from 10 to 40 pounds off a woman's apparent weight by a cleverly continued fold or pleat.

And I am glad to be able to assure you that more and more salesgirls are being instructed to sell the right thing—not anything! So it's not such a precarious task to choose clothes as might be expected. There are, nevertheless, certain outstanding laws which are well to observe.

The basic laws of line, I might call them — for they will guide you even when you have only your own judgment and a mirror to rely upon. First in importance is the slenderizing quality of the long vertical line. However, it must depend upon your figure whether or not you can afford to have the line sweeping from neck to hem or broken at waist, hip or knee length. The absolutely proportional figure can stand the sheath line, but for the average woman a belt at the hips is more likely to be suitable. A diagonal line on the blouse from neck to hip will minimize the full-breasted figure. Flowing panels add both height and slimness. Short sleeves are taboo for the large woman.

The bloused back is particularly flattering to the large woman, and is remarkably effective in concealing stooped or round shoulders and hollow back. Long, narrow, vests are another mode of concealment for the large woman. Vertical plaits are very good, but if the hips are full they must be either inverted or side pleats, as the all-around or accordion plaiting has a tendency to add inches to the hip measurement. Tiers in the skirt are slenderizing if they are sufficiently wide. Narrow tiers, somewhat resembling rufflings, are very bad.

Colors should be dark for the stout woman. She must particularly avoid vivid colorings. Prints are inclined to make a large woman look larger, but as the summer mode says "Prints," so emphatically, there will be many misguided selections. However, if you must have a print, choose an allover design in a small pattern. Do not select material in which colors are too widely contrasting. Black and white, and navy blue and white, are the best choice. Sleeves for the stout woman should be long and flowing, emphasizing the length of her arm rather than its width. An added inch to the hem of her dress will often subtract pounds from her appearance.

For the thin woman lines should become curves as often as possible. The bolero jacket is very good, as is, for that matter, any design which divides the length of the waist. Sleeves may be peasant style—loose and flowing. Shirred waist lines and wide hems are both effective. Avoid tight-fitting bodies unless the width of the skirt is to be greatly accentuated. The modernistic angles in darker patterns on the new sport clothes are very good. Tiers may be narrow—and frequent. Round necks are becoming and contrasting colors—the skirt darker than the waist—add an effect of roundness to the silhouette.

There are lines and lines! As a general rule the vertical line adds height and slenderness, and the horizontal line adds weight and shortens the lines. Parallel lines either way accentuate the effect. That is why vertical pleats strengthen the long, slender line and horizontal tucks "spread" waist, hips, arms, etc. You need have no difficulty in conforming to the generalities in line when you select your wardrobe if you bear these basic laws well in mind.

Harrisburg Credit Bureau Manager Is Speaker At Convention Banquet Here

The message of the National Retailers Credit Association was brought to the managers of the Pennsylvania Credit bureaus when James D. Hays, manager of the Harrisburg Credit Bureau and state chairman to the national association, spoke on "Constructive Credit Cooperation" to over 100 persons, assembled in the Crystal ball room of The Castleton at a dinner Tuesday evening sponsored by the convention of the Associated Credit Bureaus of Pennsylvania and the New Castle Association of Credit Men, and to which members of the various service clubs of New Castle attended as special guests.

Mr. Hays first complimented Ray F. Hall, manager of the New Castle Credit Exchange, for the splendid manner in which he had conducted the bureau since he became manager.

Co-operation Necessity

"Community co-operation is a necessity!" stated Mr. Hays. "Just as I heard it said that co-operation is not a sentiment but a necessity, so it is with the great present day civic institution which we shall call the credit bureau or the credit exchange."

Tracing the development of credit since the year 2,000 B. C., Mr. Hays stated that the first modern application of credit came when France in 1807 started a system which was called "Tempermental Buying."

"We find, in our travels" continued Mr. Hays, "a few moss covered men who are called business men, and who do not believe in the principles of credit bureau work. But, if you will take time to look them over, and then see their places of business, one will quickly come to the conclusion that they are not the merchant princes of their cities: they have not progressed with the times. Of course, they are still doing business, but they are thinking in terms of yesterday and not of today.

"What do we need today? We need to devote ourselves to learning more about our jobs and our businesses. I am of the firm opinion that we should read and study more and more about our particular line of work. We should know more about it than an outsider.

Credit Bureau Idea

"The credit bureau idea is not a modern wrinkle in business. It is builded on a solid foundation of merit and soundness. It must stand the rigors of the future, for we are only building this nation wide retail credit structure. Our task is that of pathfinders of progressive credit methods that will stand for protection and not abuse.

"With its tenacles, like those of an octopus, reaching into every home, regardless of social standing, is the credit bureau. To be a success in any community, it must be impartial in its dealings: everyone must be treated with courtesy, whether they are wealthy or poor."

Mr. Hays continued to speak of the broad scope of the credit bureau work, likening the exchange to a vast water reservoir of information which must be kept well filled. He then referred to the decision made by the National City Bank of New York, which, as it is being carried out by all the dignified institutions, in a short time will serve to elliminate the loan shark.

Big Development

"This bank," commented Mr. Hays, "is making small loans to individuals with two endorsers at a rate of interest of six per cent. This, I call the greatest development of the century in credit work. It is starting a precedent which will, eventually, eliminate loan sharks of all sorts.

The speaker also told of the work of his collection bureau at the Harrisburg exchange. The first 36 days that it was in operation, he stated, he received 4,690 claims which had been charged off to profit and loss, and which represented a sum of $139,717. During those same days, $2,407 of this sum was collected

"'You can't fool all of the people all of the time,'" Mr. Hayes concluded. "These words are very true in the experience of a credit bureau manager, and especially so when a man who is doing a credit business claims that he does not have any bad accounts on his ledgers, saying that he has no use for bureau service. But, eventually the truth will come out.

"We can oly expect in returns on our investment of good will, co-operation, enthusiasm, honesty and money in the same measure that we are willing to give. The more we recognize our community responsibilities, the better, broader service we will render, the greater respect the people will have for us and for those we represent, and the better we will be able to carry on.

"The credit bureau is a constructive force, a helping institution, a community clearing house, and our job is to keep on, under the light of new days and increasing hopes for the goal of greater success."

Following the speech of Mr. Hays, the motion picture "The Fair of the Iron Horse," was presented through the courtesy of the local offices of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. Music throughout the evening, was furnished by the Penn-Ohio System orchestra.

Bricklayers Start Work On Hospital Home For Nurses

Steady Progress Is Being Made On Construction Of Jameson Hospital

All brick work on the solarium walls of the Jameson Memorial hospital located on West Garfield avenue was finished up early Tuesday afternoon, states Thomas Blair, superintendent of construction for the Boldt Construction company who have charge of building operations and the men have begun to concentrate their efforts on the pent houses of the building which will be completed within a few days time.

In fact all of the brick work is being pushed so that it may be completed in the shortest possible time. At the nurses home masons have almost finished setting stones and bricklayers are beginning to run up the walls.

While this has been going on laborers on the job have not been idle. Each day there is more debris which must be cleaned up so that the job always looks neat. Then they have been placing backing up tile on the side of the nurses home and cleaning down the chimney, removing the scaffolding as they go.

Special Envelopes Used For Air Mail

Envelopes With Colored Border Help Handling Of Air Mail

As a part of the program of Air Mail Week, the postoffice department is advising the use of special envelopes for the air mail that the mail may be more certain of prompt handling.

These envelopes are not furnished by the department but may be printed by private individuals of concerns without restriction provided they meet certain specifications.

Two types of envelopes are recommended by the postoffice department. One being the older type with one-fourth inch red and blue stripes across the length of the envelope, these two stripes being separated by a white band of the same width (one-fourth inch.) These bands must be at least 1 1-8 inches below the top of the leter so as to allow room for the stamps and past marks. They must also bear the words "Via Air Mail."

The second and more attractive type of envelope is one surrounded with a border of alternating blue and red oblique parallelgrams with a white space between each. These envelopes are specially suitable as the borders may extend around the edge of the envelopes forming similar designs on the back. So that not only are they easily recognized when loose among other mail but if tied in a bundle or in a a packing case they may quickly be distinguished by the colors on the edge and thus placed in the proper bags. This type must also bear the words "Via Air Mail."

Ordinary envelopes may be used and will help the handling if two blue lines are placed across the face and back of the envelope so that they do not cover any part of the address or return card and placed below the space for stamps and postmarks. The words "Via Air Mail" must be used on these also. The lines may be made by blue pencil or printed in blue ink. They may also be placed around the envelope vertically.

Looks as if May may have profited from the example of April when it came time to walk upon the stage. She did it in much better style. April proved a very bad actor.

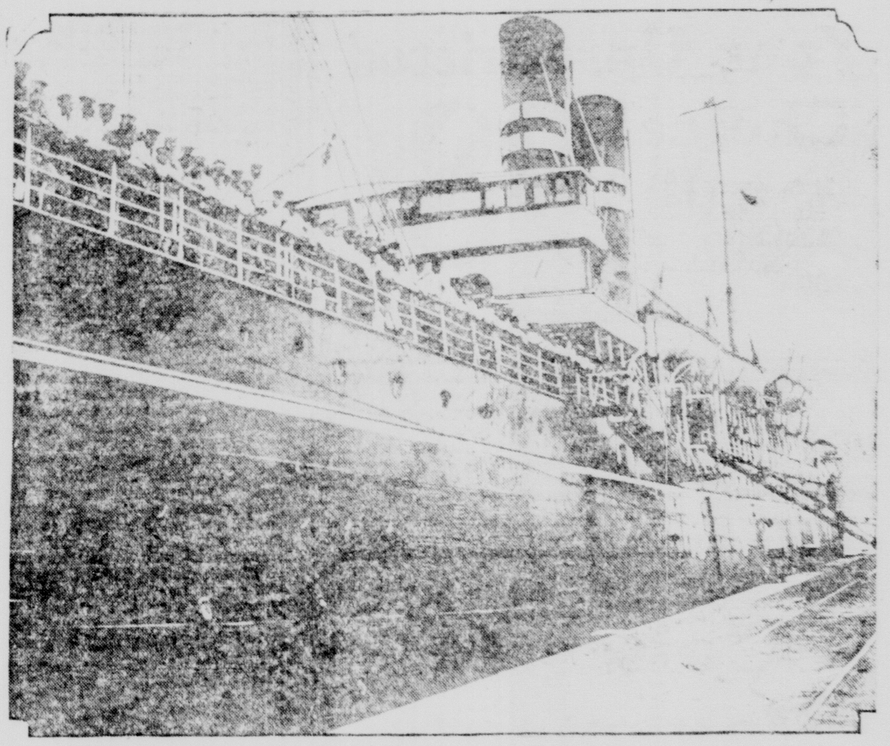
Arrival of Japanese Soldiers in China



At the first sign of war clouds, nearly a year ago, the Japanese transport Hongkong Maru is shown above as she steamed into Tsingtao with the first contingent of Japanese soldiers. On landing, they took over the town and later captured Tsinan. The presence of Japanese troops in those places has been a constant thorn in the side of the Nationalist government, and the recent killing of Japanese soldiers at Tsinan, presumably by Nationalist forces, is largely responsible for the present crisis. With Japanese reinforcements moving steadily in the Tsingtao and Tsinan region, telegraph and telephone communication between the two cities has been restored.

ACTIVITIES AT RESCUE MISSION

The Bible class of the City Mission will be held, as usual, Thursday evening with Frank Geiger teaching, to which everyone is invited. Those who attend will find it a great convenience if they bring their Bibles with them.

The other service during the week will be conducted by E. J. Berquist, the superintendent.

On Tuesday evening of next week, May 22, Rev. Harry L. Johnson, pastor of the Simpson M. E. church, along with the orchestra of the church, will be in charge of the service at the City Mission This orchestra is an exceptionally fine one, made up of young folks of 15; and it is one of the coming little orchestras of the city, and the service or the music that this orchestra will render beside the other part which they will take is well worth anyone's time being present to enjoy.

FINDS BLESSED RELIEF, AFTER LONG SUFFERING

Lady Freed Of Indigestion, Headaches And Dizziness By Using Ten Herbs.

"Although I suffered with constipation, gas on my stomach, headaches and dizzy spells for five years, two bottles of Ten Herbs made me feel like a different person," was the statement of Mrs. Samuel Hoffman, 219 Hawkins Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa., to the Ten Herbs Man, who is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, New Castle, where he is daily demonstrating this popular herbal medicine.

"I did not know what a good night's sleep was, as I would have terrible pains across my back," Mrs. Hoffman continued. "I surely did suffer from gas on my stomach after eating, and was always belching a great deal. I would awaken in the morning with a severe headache, and had to keep taking some kind of laxative because of constipation.

"After taking Ten Herbs, my bowels are more regular, and the pains have disappeared from my back. I feel fine upon awakening in the morning, and those headaches are a thing of the past. I have also been relieved of gas on the stomach. Ten Herbs gave me such good results that it merits my highest recommendation."

The most common ailments of today are those which arise from the under-nourished, half-poisoned condition of the system, which is caused by sluggish stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Ten Herbs is widely used and highly recommended to relieve such ailing conditions. Its wonderful natural ingredients not only benefit and invigorate those important organs, but cleanse and revitalize the whole system, eliminating poisonous waste matter and impurities.

Every day the Ten Herbs Man is receiving reports from men and women throughout this section in which they tell of the great relief this new medicine has given them, and some ask that their statements be published in the daily papers, that others may learn of the merits of this successful preparation.

The Ten Herbs Man is at Eskerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, New Castle, where he is daily meeting the public and explaining the merits of this medicine. Free sample given.

PEOPLE AS HAPPY AS BIRDS IN SPRINGTIME

No Reason Why Anybody Should Suffer From Spring Fever, Says the World's Tonic Man

"When the warmth of Spring is felt, everything in Nature changes. All vegetation pulses with activity. Animals become brighter, and are more active. Why, then, is it that man alone suffers from so-called 'Spring Fever?'"

That question was put to the World's Tonic man at McKee's Kut Rate Store. Instantly he answered: "If men lived like the animals they wouldn't have spring fever. But since they eat heavily all winter, and keep in the houses, their organs fail to throw off all the waste matter and impurities. Then when Spring is at hand, they feel like they couldn't move and want to lie down and sleep. No wonder. Systems are full of waste, the blood carries a lot of impurities, and often shows its condition in catarrh. What man needs then is something that will clean his blood, correct the catarrhal troubles, and give vigor and pep. Why, thousands of people take two or three bottles of World's Tonic every Spring in order to purify the blood, overcome the catarrhal effects and build up the strength. You can come pretty near telling such a man by his clear eye, springy step and vim. If all you who have Spring fever would do that, this nation would be as happy as the birds in Spring."

World's Tonic is sold by Paisley's, McKee's Kut Rate Store, Smith's, Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc and all other good druggists. (270)

Noted Artist May Visit In Ellwood

Henry Zeigler, Noted Etcher, May Pay Visit To His Niece, Mrs. Howell Jenkins

ELLWOOD CITY, May 16.—Henry Zeigler, noted etcher of New York, may pay a visit to his niece, Mrs. Howell Jenkins of Ewing Park soon. Mrs. J. H. Cline, Mrs. Jenkin's mother and house guest, recently returned from a visit in New York with her brother, where she viewed some of his fine etchings in that city.

Mr. Zeigler will long be remembered for his excellent collaboration with the poet, F. W. Lafrentz, Litt, D., in the edition of a limited edition of the book "Cowboy Stuff", containing poems of western life, handsomely illustrated by Mr. Zeigler. The original copies which were few in number sold for handsome prices, as a benefit for the Lincoln Memorial university in Cumberland Gap, an institution devoted to the education of the hill folk.

Henry Zeigler is a member of an old Texas ranch family and sportsman as well as artist, and devoted 18 months to the illustration of the book of poems. He was a student of the late Joseph Pennel, who needs no further mention as he will always be remembered by art lovers for his famous etchings. At the death of Mr. Pennel, a memorial etching of the artist, done by Mr. Zeigler, was the only one selected by Mrs. Pennel to place in her museum of etchings she was erecting to her late husband.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

By J. Carroll Mansfield

Custer's Last Campaign—Part IX
The Last Stand

AS THE AFTERNOON WORE ON, AND HELP DID NOT COME, CUSTER AND HIS GALLANT TROOPERS REALIZED THAT THEY WERE DOOMED. MANY OF THEIR COMRADES HAD FALLEN, AND THE RUTHLESS RING OF GALLOPING PONIES AND HIDEOUSLY-PAINTED INDIANS, AT TIMES ALMOST HIDDEN BY THE SMOKE OF BATTLE AND DUST, WAS DRAWING CLOSER AND CLOSER.

A SCORE OF SOLDIERS TRIED TO CUT THEIR WAY THROUGH THAT BLAZING, CHARGING CIRCLE, ONLY TO BE SHOT DOWN OR TOMAHAWKED. AT LAST ALL THAT REMAINED OF CUSTER'S FORCE WAS A SHATTERED REMNANT GATHERED AROUND THE COMMANDER AND THE FLAG FOR A LAST, DESPERATE STAND.

WISHING TO COMPLETE THE WORK OF SLAUGHTER, GALL AND CRAZY HORSE CALLED OFF THEIR BRAVES AND FORMED THEM FOR A GRAND CHARGE. WITH RINGING WAR CRIES, THE SIOUX THUNDERED DOWN UPON THEIR VICTIMS, AND THE LITTLE KNOT OF DEFENDERS WAS BLOTTED OUT BY THE CONFUSED MASS OF INDIANS AND PONIES.

WHEN THE CHARGE HAD PASSED, NOT A SOLDIER WAS LEFT STANDING. SPRINGING FROM THEIR MOUNTS, THE SIOUX DASHED FORWARD TO WREAK THEIR VENGEANCE ON THE FALLEN FOE WITH TOMAHAWKS, KNIVES AND CLUBBED RIFLES.

TOMORROW—THE BATTLE ON THE BLUFF.

Jimmy McLarnin Is Favored To Defeat Mandell Thursday

Believe McLarnin Too Clever For Sammy Mandell; Title At Stake

Mandell Is Fast And May Be Able To Outbox Man Seeking To Regain Crown

By DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor International News Service

NEW YORK, May 16.—Somewhere in the same ward with the third baseman who thought Babe Ruth was going to bunt should be carefully confined the gent or gents who thought Sammy Mandell was worth eight dollars against Jimmy McLarnin's five for the lightweight championship meeting at the Polo grounds tomorrow night. The writer admits that he hasn't encountered this benefactor in the flesh, or even the sack suit; but neither has he seen the man who says he swallowed a billiard ball.

Both are taken for granted and on faith, that being the only thing to do in a case like this—take them. They must be wrong or they wouldn't even claim they did it.

McLarnin Favored.

However, it is not the writer's wish to suggest that Mandell is due to blow this one. The claim that Samuel will cake-walk to the decision has been so insistent I am almost convinced that he will. He looks like a man who is worth a bet and the one I mean is the $10,000 bet that is supposed to have been made at even money last night.

The idea in this transaction was that those who figured in it were a couple of big coffee men from the Automat or something and it was the sport of the thing and not the money that counted. Anyhow, that would seem to be the way to bet this one—even money, provided you give me Mandell.

That eight to five earlier in the week was a mild form of dementia. The seven to five prevailing today proved a turn for the better, although not quite a symptom of impending convalescence. The mugg who doesn't get as good as 6 to 5 for his Mandell money is a very sick man and won't recover until they give away sense with the horse.

Mandell Is Fast.

It may or may not be important that those who like Mandell so well are about the same worthies who said Sid Terris was a push-in against McClarnin. They thought weight-making would get James that time. Now that they know McClarin can scoff at the scales, they are figuring Mandell will show him too many gloves in' a manner much too intimate for comfort.

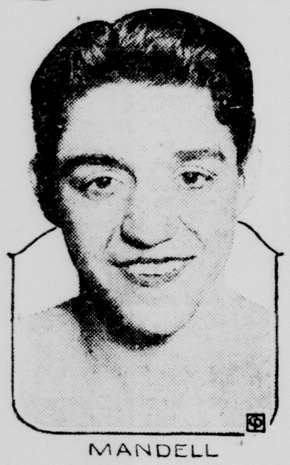
The fight does figure that way, at that, provided everything is carried through according to script. If it isn't, nothing will be carried through, not even Mandell. He will be carried out. The right hand that leveled Terris in the first minute of play is one of the finest the writer ever has seen.

Can he hit Mandell with it? Most of the smart players say he can't and won't, which, to my way of fighting, makes this a pretty good bet. But these smart boys have gone a bit too far in the matter. They are declaring that nobody can hit Mandell with a right hand and I know that's wrong. Terris had him on the axminster here a couple of years ago and Sidney never saw the moment he could hit with McLarin. Billy Petrolle also hurt Samuel that way in a recent fight.

Therefore—

But why go on? It is always good gambling to bet the boxer against the fighter; at least, up to but not including the moment the boxer is hit upon the windbreaker or snout. In other words, you can bet this one either 6 to 5 or 5 to 6 and not be all wrong—only once, to be exact.

Personalities IN SPORT



MANDELL

Sammy Mandell, winner of the world lightweight championship from Rocky Kansas, in 1926, was born at Rockford, Ill., February 5, 1904, of Italian-American parents.

Mandell started his career in 1920 and from then until he won the title he rolled up victories over such boys as Frankie Garcia, Babe Herman, Jack Bernstein, Mickey O'Dowd, Sid Barbarian and Sidney Glick.

After beating Phil McGraw in 1927, he fought many times, but met no formidable opponents until he was matched with Jimmy McLarnin, this month.

Clifton Flats Takes Victory

The Clifton Flats team made its 1928 debut in the Lawrence County Twilight league on Tuesday night at the South Hills field by toppling the South Hills team 6 to 0.

The Flats team had two big innings, the first and fifth, when they tallied all of their runs. The pitching of Coates for the Flats was sensational, this chap allowing but one hit and fanning four men. Coates had a no-hit game until the fifth inning when Richards beat out a hit to short. The Flats team played a great game in the field. The South Hills boys had four errors. Byak featured the game with a home run drive.

"What the other American clubs need' said a New York expert "is more good ball players." What he means was that they really need less Yankees.

Left-handed pitchers may be eccentric, wild, coo-coo and what have you—but good ones, southpaws with a fair amount of control, win ball games and are valuable and necessary to every big league pitching staff. Back in the days when Connie Mack was winning pennants, he had Waddell and Plank in 1902 and Pennock and Plank in 1914, and now, 14 years later, he has Grove, Walberg and Orwoll. Can anybody think of one manager in either "big time" circuit who can match these three portsiders, unless it is Wilbert Robinson with Petty, Elliott and Clark, or Roger Peckinpaugh with Shaute, Buckeye and Miller?

"Rube" Walberg, whose real name is George, is now in his fifth season as a regular with the Athletics. Last year, in winning 16 games and losing 10, he twice held the champion Yankees to one hit, and this year, on April 21, he gave them only six scattered hits and shut them out 10 to 0. In 1927 the New Yorkers were not whitewashed until September 3, so it may be an omen of what is to come.

Walberg is a big fellow, standing 6 feet 1 inch in height and weighing 185 pounds. He was born in Seattle in July, 1899, and pitched for Portland of the Pacific Coast league in 1922. The following year the Giants had him, but he was sent to the Athletics on waivers. He worked in 26 games for Mack in 1923, winning four and losing eight. Nineteen twenty-four saw him farmed out to Milwaukee, where he won 18 and lost 14. Since then he has been a regular with the Athletics, and his speed has made him the toughest pitcher in the American league for the Yanks, as well as other teams.

FEG MURRAY SAYS

Overheard at a lacrosse game:

Sheik, explaining what it's all about to his Sheba: "You see, there are two distinct teams, one on each side."

Glenna Collett Is Defeated By British Maiden

Miss Mabel Wragg, Yorkshire Girl Golfer, Proves Sensation By Victory

TOURNEY MARRED BY WIND AND RAIN

By FRANK A. WRAY
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HUNSTANTON, Eng., May 16.—Glenna Collett, chief hope of America to capture the British women's golf championship, was eliminated from the tournament today, in a half gale of wind and rain, 3 and 2, by Miss Mabel Wragg of England.

Miss Wragg, a Yorkshire girl, has been regarded as one of the best women players in the north of England, but her defeat of the former American champion came as one of the big surprises of the tournament.

Miss Collett was one of the first to congratulate her conqueror, Miss Wragg meanwhile receiving the cheers of a large gallery, as she was immediately rated as a possible British champion and it appeared highly probable that this year's championship would remain in the British isles.

Another American contender was eliminated when Miss Elizabeth Curtis of Clinton, Iowa, was defaeted 6 and 5 by Miss Joy Winn of Aldeburgh, England.

Diamond Notes

The Oldsmobiles easily defeated the Hickory Heights nine by a score of 11 to 0. The Oldsmobiles went on a hitting spree and slammed hits to all parts of the field. Hannon and Witherow received fine support and held the Hickory team to three hits.

The Clifton Flats ball club of the American section of the Twilight League would like to book games with fast teams for Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday of each week. For games call R and ask for William Smiley. The Flats played 76 games last year and are out to better this record in 1928. All players should report at six o'clock tonight for the game.

The Mack Midgets defeated the West Side Bulldogs, 15 to 5, in a recent encounter. The game was played at Franklin Field. DeCarbo, on the mound for the Macks, pitched a fine game. The following teams are asked to get in touch with the Macks for games: West Side Panthers, Lindy Midgets, Ryantown Midgets, Young Giants, South Side Midgets and all others. For games call 2354? and ask for Robert, or call 1419? and ask for Mike.

CARL LIND

Carl Lind, like a veteran, is taking care of the second sack for the Cleveland Indians, which, since the days of old Bill Wambsganss, has been a weak spot in the Indian defense.

Old Wamby was the goods. Since his departure the Tribe has tried many at the keystone corner, but none clicked until Lind came along this spring, and performed like an embryo star.

Carl came from Tulane university a couple of years ago. In 1926 he played with Peoria, and last year with Denver. He is a six-footer, weighs 160 pounds, and is but 23 years old.

ERIE, Pa., May 16.—C. C. "Cross Country Pyle's brigade of blisters advanced into New York state today on their 62-mile trek to Jamestown, preparatory to the final sprints that will carry the 10 leaders into the split on the $48,500 prize money at New York.

Andrew Payne, youthful Oklahoman, who heads the big parade with an elapsed time of 476:57:40 for 2,890.9 miles, appears an almost certain winner, but still is reserved enough not to extend his palm for the $25,000 purse that is the victor's award.

"I remember what happened to Gavuzzi just the other day," Payne said. "He had a comfortable lead over me. Then things went wrong and he was out. Before him Willie Kolehmainen, Arthur Newton, Charley Hart, Ollie Wanttinen and other great runners met misfortune. The last six hundred odd miles are the hardest. Anything may happen."

John Salo, Passaic, N. J., Finnish-American, who holds second place, 21 hours, 49 minutes, 27 seconds behind Payne, refused to divulge whether he calculated setting a pace aimed to "crack" his rival. "Payne has a nice edge," Salo said. "I'm still going ahead and hoping that I'll carry through somewhere in the money division."

Ed. Gardner, Seattle negro, who was ready to drop out a week ago with shin splints, sprang a big surprise yesterday on the 45.8-mile lap from Ashtabula, O., setting the pace in 6:09:39. Twenty-three minutes, 32 seconds behind him was Giusto Umek, champion of Italy, who advanced from sixth to fifth place on the one day's performance.

Leaving Jamestown tomorrow morning, the runners will trek on that day to Bradford, continuing to Wellsville on Friday and to Hornell on Saturday.

Harold "Red" Grange, referee in the great contest, and hero of innumerable gridiron battles, declared that "football is as rough as ping pong, compared with the stamina that these fellows have shown through the 73 days they have been on the road."

Close Race In National Loop

Reds, Cards, Cubs And Giants Battling For League Leadership

AMERICAN LEAGUE RACE WALKAWAY

By LES CONKLIN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, May 16.—While the New York Yankees are making a farce of the American league race, the National league scramble is the closest to a free-for-all seen in that organization in years. St. Louis can go into a triple tie with Cincinnati and Chicago by beating Boston again today while the Reds and Cubs are idle. And the Giants are only two games behind the Cardinals.

The Reds dropped into a tie with the Cubs for the lead by losing to the Phillies yesterday, 5 to 3, when Donald Hurst, rookie first baseman obtained by the Phils from the International league last week, clouted a homer with two on. It was the Quakers' first victory in the west.

The Cubs outslugged the Giants, 10 to 7, sweeping the series and stretching their winning streak to ten straight. The Bruins walloped sixteen hits and scored seven runs in their last two times at bat.

Harper Wins Game

George Harper, obtained by the Cardinals from the Giants because of his penchant for hitting home runs, performed his specialty with one man on. This blow, coupled with Hafey's homer, gave the Cards a 3 to 1 verdict over Boston.

Brooklyn lambasted Pittsburgh for the third time in a row, sending the champions into sixth place. The weak-hitting Robins collected sixteen hits and won in a romp, 10 to 3.

In the American league the Yankees have copped twelve of their last thirteen starts, have won six straight and have taken ten out of eleven from the western clubs, making a clean sweep against Chicago and Detroit. Two homers and triple by Babe Ruth featured their 12 to 8 win over the Tigers yesterday.

The Athletics refuse to give up the ghost, however. They beat Cleveland again, 5 to 0, and squared the series. Daddy Tris Speaker smacked three doubles and the venerable John Picus Quinn allowed only six hits in registering his forth straight victory.

The rejuvenated Red Sox, now composed mainly of veterans, have created a furore up in Boston by winning four straight. Ruffing won a 3 to 1 pitching duel over Ogden of the St. Louis Browns in the final game. The Sox have risen to the dizzy heights of a tie with the Senators for fifth place.

Washington couldn't hit Ted Lyons in the pinches and lost a 3 to 2 verdict to the White Sox, who got an even break in the series.

West Pittsburg Trims Mahonings

The West Pittsburg team of the American section of the Twilight League opened their 1928 season at West Pittsburg on Tuesday night by defeating the Mahonings 6 to 3.

The winners had one big inning, the second when they tallied all of their runs. The Mahonings jumped on Mundo in the first inning for three runs, but Braykovick stemmed the tide and held the Seventh Warders safe the remainder of the game.

R. Elesser was the feature hitter of the game and should have had a home run on one of his two hits, but there was a misunderstanding on the ground rules.

Wampum Defeats Lawrence Indies

The Wampum team, a newcomer to the Lawrence County Twilight League opened their 1928 season in the American Section on Tuesday night at the Cedar street field, by toppling the Lawrence Indies 9 to 1.

Boone on the hill for the Wampumites pitched a masterful game, allowing but four hits and fanning six men. Wampum found the offering of McIntyre for eight hits, and aided by three errors on the part of the Indies tallied nine runs. The hitting of Layton, Fitzgerald and Dombeck featured.

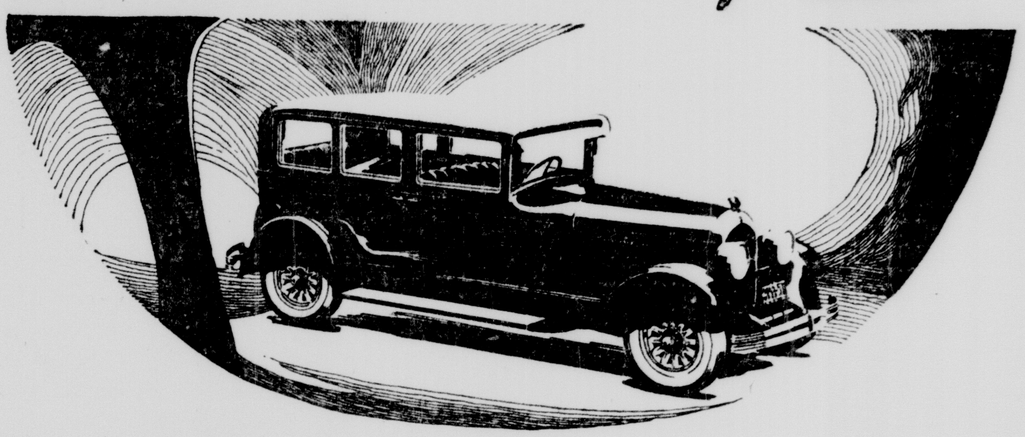
Not an inch have they gained on "72"



NEW performance values came into existence when the first Chrysler was created four years ago. . . . The industry since has gone over en masse to the effort to pattern after them. But the remarkable thing is that Chrysler "72" is just as much alone today as when it was the one and only exponent of its type. ¶ Alone in a theoretical sense only? Emphatically no. Alone in an actual sense — the performance sense which singles it out and sets it apart in competition of the street and road and hill as much as its brilliant beauty sets it apart in the eye of the onlooker.

These things could not be said if they were not true — and especially if the truth were not quickly provable. ¶ Chrysler "72" actually begs for tests and comparisons — it is eager to be checked not only on one, but on all phases of performance, with its most ambitious emulators. . . . It has not only not yielded a fraction of an inch of its leadership of four years ago — it has widened the gap and lengthened the distance. ¶ Chrysler "72" is indeed Illustrious because it is beyond doubt the one great engineering, performance, and beauty value in the motor-car market today.

SPORTS DONE BROWN

By NORMAN E. BROWN
Staff Writer for Central Press and New Castle News.

William T. Tilden, II, the man who played the outstanding part in America's long defense of the Davis cup, will draw considerable credit for the eventual return of that trophy to these shores. At least, if the boys now being primed for the fight for that prized piece of silver are the men who will bring back the sacred chalice.

Big Bill carries into the final test matches a squad of youngsters who have at least a working knowledge of the type of game they would have to face against LaCoste, Borotra, Brugnon and the other Frenchmen, thanks to Tilden.

Tilden himself will not give any indication of the moves he is making to build up a defense that will check the cup holders or the style of play that he thinks will turn back the French.

"If it's for publication, no," says Big Bill.

However, on the courts his intensive training of the players gives some inkling of his plans. One thing is apparent. That is that the new Davis cup team will depart somewhat from the dashing driving, tiring pace the old teams of Tilden, Vinny Richards, Bill Johnston, R. Norris Williams, et al., used to show.

The French team, singly and in the doubles, will face a varied style of attack.

Tilden and Richards and Johnston blocked the French threat for a time with a forceful type of play that bewildered the challengers. Age finally curtailed the speed of the American team and the young European squad, on the up swing, finally beat the Americans at their own game. Now Tilden wants them to face an entirely different style.

It takes an afternoon alongside the court where Tilden and his "pupils" are on exhibition to realize to what extent Tilden has thrown himself into the work of "teacher". His own play is secondary in many respects. On the back court shots—in the doubles play—he is "calling" position to his partner while playing the ball himself. At the net he shifts the play to his pupil-partner as soon as possible, to give the youngster the advantage of the training—coaching him meanwhile.

Few there are who would try to coach boys like George Lott, Johnny Hennessey, Wilmer Allison, Arnold Jones, Junior Coen, Wray, Brown and one or two others whose work to date has stamped them as the new Richards and Tilden of our tennis world.

Tilden's tact in handling his school is startling in view of the "temperament" with which he was charged while at the peak of his own career. There is a sort of camaraderie in the squad that speaks well for Tilden's ability as a teacher. He takes the laughter of the gallery in good part when stopped in his play by one of the kids, and is the first to call out a compliment to one of them when he executes a rather startling play.

It is beyond the province of the average spectator to select the choice of the cup candidates, but the play of Hennessey, Lott and Allison among the youngsters is pleasing. The makeup of the cup team still depends on their later showing in further matches abroad and the possibilities of Tilden and Francis T. Hunter electing to at least share the doubles play.

These times are hard on a small boy. To be a Babe Ruth or a Lindbergh, that's the problem.

Deferred Sentence Begun By Physician

BUTLER, Pa., May 16.—Dr. J. E. Quigley yesterday began the serving of the 30-day sentence imposed upon him at the December term of court when he was arraigned and entered a plea of guilty to the operation of an automobile while under the influence of liquor. Yesterday a petition was presented asking that the jail term be suspended but this was refused by Judge John R. Henninger and Quigley will go to jail for 30 days.

At the time the sentence was imposed a delegation of citizens from Portersville where Dr. Quigley is located appeared and asked that the serving of the jail sentence be deferred. It was pleaded that the roads in the vicinity of Portersville were such that other physicians would not and could not get there in event of a resident's illness and that Dr. Quigley was needed by the community. It was asked that he be allowed to serve his jail sentence during May and this was allowed.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 16.—Violent bidding for stocks of the automobile, airplane and copper companies at the beginning of trading today caused another spectacular "demonstration" of bullish strength, and stocks were whirled upward from 3 to 11 points.

Studebaker and Packard led the motor flares, both stocks selling at 81, for net gains of 4 and 6 points, respectively from Tuesday's final prices. Nash, Willys-Overland, Chrysler and Hupp were active and firm.

Airplane stocks jumped 12 points in the first half hour. Curtis sold today at 783 and Wright at 236.

The Reserve Board's industrial statement, showing March manufactured production at the highest volume in 15 years; the 17,000 cars weekly increase in freight loadings on the American railroads; the 1,000,000 barrels daily decline in crude oil production last week, and the abundance of speculative money in the financial district, had their effect in stirring up speculative enthusiasm.

The copper stocks and the independent steels showed activity and buoyancy. Bethlehem Steel rose nearly 5 points to 65 and Otis Steel, in the low-priced group, carried its advance to above 23, completing a gain of about 6 points on the movement. American Zinc reached a new high above 55. Magma Copper and American Smelting were active and strong. Call money rates were unchanged at 5½ per cent.

Seek Enactment Of Boulder Dam Bill Before Adjournment

Boulder Dam Supporters Flushed With Triumph In Consideration

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Flushed with their triumph in securing a rule for consideration of the Boulder Canyon dam bill, backers of the measure today began a drive to roll up the votes necessary to send the bill to the White House before adjournment.

The prospect of adjournment being set back as a result of fights over the tax and urgent deficiency bills gave advocates of the legislation new hope that they can pass it handily in the house and break the threatened filibuster in the Senate.

For the first time in their two-year fight against filibustering tactics, apparent coldness of House leaders and opposition of the "power trust", sponsors of the bill found themselves occupying a strategic position.

It will be presented to Congress as a measure to save the people of the Imperial Valley of California from being engulfed in a flood which would take a toll of life far greater than the Mississippi disaster of 1927.

Over 17 Millions Paid As Gas Tax

Returns Show United States Burned Over Ten Billions Of Gallons In 1927

Motorists of Pennsylvania paid a total of $17,296,333 in the form of gasoline tax in 1927 at the rate of three cents on each gallon, states Bernard N. Hanlon, manager of the New Castle Motor club, who says that this is Pennsylvania's share of the total of $258,966,651 in revenue produced by gasoline tax throughout the United States last year.

Of this amount, he continues, $182,-95,503 was available for the construction and maintenance of state highways under the supervision of the state highway department and $55,-440,161 was appropriated to counties for local road purposes.

Mr. Hanlon states that the tax was collected in every state except Massachusetts and New York, the rate sliding from two to five cents on the gallon.

The returns indicate a great increase in gasoline consumption over 1926, asserts Mr. Hanlon. It is estimated that ten and one half billions of gallons were used by motor vehicles during the year, an increase of 8.2 per cent over 1926. The average consumption per motor vehicle was 458 gallons.

Former Bolshevik Dictator Believed Marked For Death

Attempts Made By Several To Assassinate Bela Kun In Vienna

(International News Service)

VIENNA, May 16.—That attempts were made to assassinate Bela Kun, former Bolshevik dictator of Hungary, after his arrest in this city charged with plotting a Communist uprising in Jungary and elsewhere throughout Central Europe, was learned today.

Kun is one of the most hated men in Europe, especially among the Hungarian aristocracy. Scores of his enemies were searching for him in Vienna. An attempt was made to kidnap him. After he was locked up another enemy sent him a box of poisoned chocolates. In fact, the former Red dictator is believed to be safer in his cell than he would be at large.

Kun, who ruled Hungary between March and August of 1919, is a fanatical Communist and an able organizer. After his dictatorship was swept away with the aid of the Roumanian army, Kun escaped through Austria and Germany to Russia. There he has been active as a member of the third international and the executive committee of the Crimean Soviet.

Airplane Stocks Take Big Jump

Newly Organized Cross-Continent Service Gives Impetus

PENNSYLVANIA R. R. PRESIDENT SPEAKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 16.—Airplane stocks soared to new high records on the New York Stock Exchange today, indicating Wall Street's confidence in the newly formed Transcontinental Air Transport, Inc., the air and rail system which plans to cut travel time between the Atlantic and Pacific to 48 hours.

Shares of the two air companies mentioned as interested in the project—Wright Aero and Curtiss Aero—advanced sensationally, Wright jumping 27 points to 241, and Curtiss 21 points to 190. These are the highest prices that either stock has ever attained. A year ago Wright Aero was selling at 28, and on February 27 of this year was recorded at 69.

Today's advance in Wright Aero followed a 17 1-2 point jump yesterday. The gain in Wright was in part attributed to the action of directors in voting to double the authorized capitalization from 250,000 shares to 500,000 shares. They also voted to grant present stockholders the privilege of subscribing for new stock at 100.

A new era in method of travel was forecast in some quarters. The new company, in which the Pennsylvania and Atchinson railway systems will have an important part, plans eventually to extend the air-and-rail service between New York and Los Angeles to include most of the principal cities of the United States.

Atterbury's Comment

PHILADELPHIA, May 16.—General W. W. Atterbury, president of the Pennsylvania railroad, commenting upon the organization of the transcontinental air transport corporation and the plans for joint rail and airplane passenger service, today declared he believed the time is now ripe for passenger airplane service in this country.

"The Pennsylvania railroad has become part owner of the Trans-Continental Air Transport, Inc., in the belief that the time is ripe for the inauguration of safe and convenient passenger airplane service in co-ordination with rail facilities," he said.

"Years of flying and careful research have demonstrated that with proper maintenance and operation passenger airplanes of the type to be used by the new company, flying only in daytime and over carefully selected and marked routes, can be safely operated.

"Not until we were convinced that a dependable air service could be produced on a sound basis and that an independent organization had been developed competent to give a safe and satisfactory service did we feel justified in giving our support to such an enterprise," he added. "We feel those conditions are met in the present undertaking and that it will be the forerunner of far-reaching developments."

COLLECT CANS ON SATURDAYS

Howard Phillips, superintendent of the department of garbage collection today stated that the collection of tin cans is staged every Saturday by truck drivers in his department.

He says that all of the trucks which on other days, except Sunday used to gather garbage, collect cans and go as far as possible along the route.

The following Saturday the drivers begin where they left off. He says that persons should not place cans in receptacles on sidewalks but place the receptacles containing the cans on some other portion of the property.

Charge Violation Of Snyder Act

In the home and garage of Lawrence Freshwater, Dewey avenue, when visited by the city police last night, a considerable quantity of liquor was discovered in a twenty-five gallon keg, also a part of a still.

The house was visited on a search warrant. The searching officers were Lieutenant of Police Peter Hillers, Detective J. Young and Officers Samuels, McMullen and Mrs. Minnie McKibben, city police woman.

Freshwater was this morning taken before Alderman Walter T. Hamilton where a charge of violating the Snyder Act was made against him by Chief of Police C. C. Horner. He secured bail in the sum of $1,500 for his appearance at a hearing to be held later.

Six Contagious Cases Reported

Several new cases of contagion were made known today to Dr. W. L. Steen, health officer. Among the cases is that of Joseph Vitale, 1205 South Jefferson street, who has diphtheria.

The other patients follow:

David and Jessie McCreery, 103 East Lincoln avenue; measles.

Barbara Boyd, 716 Young street; measles.

Ruth McVay, 6, 222 East Reynolds street; mumps.

Betty Phillips, 7, 518 Lyndal street; measles.

NEW CASTLE DRY GOODS CO.

Roaming Round With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

Up in the Pine street district the neighbors are excited over an epidemic of dog poisoning. Some one, or some set of people, perhaps, has poisoned five pet dogs in and around that neighborhood.

One can hardly conceive of a person low enough or mean enough to poison a dog. A burglar, or a hold-up man, or even an automobile thief can be tolerated perhaps, but not even these miscreants are dog poisoners.

Something was left out in the makeup of a dog poisoner. That modicum of decency, or fair play which we all like to think we have, must have been forgotten for no citizen who really boasts of being decent would poison a dog.

I hope that the Pine street dog poisoner is caught and comes before a jury and that a jury could be secured composed of fellows like Dad Lyons, Squire Gilmore, Joe Williams and Chauncey Davis.

The time is midnight. The scene is the south side. Excited citizens pointing to the upper east side. The sky is reflecting a deep red, and beyond the reflection can be seen clouds of smoke. There's a fire. From the looks of it, at least a block must be burning, perhaps an entire street. Business of dashing madly up Long avenue, up Lathrop street and out one of the side streets. The fire was nearly out. A frame building used as a garage and chicken coop. The trip was productive of nothing more than a ride. But the owner of the garage probably felt badly enough about it.

There is considerable asparagus around the Leslie hotel lobby. Any one who goes in there at all frequently is subjected to the barbs of irony of some of the lads and even the proprietor, Sol Leff, is guilty occasionally of aiming the darts. Sol has seen fit to belittle a shirt which the colyum conductor recently acquired. Very blue, and figured. Sol insists that it is a riot and suggested that nothing would be printed concerning his remarks.

Circus Day. The kids of the neighborhood up before dawn, rustling round to get an early start to the circus. Mothers insisting that they should eat a little more. Older folks talking of "taking the youngsters". The veriest bunk, and merely a stall to get to go themselves. Threatening clouds, typical of circuses in New Castle. Hawkers on the downtown streets selling trinkets. Street cars bearing circus signs. Everybody headed towards the big tent.

The wet and dry vote doesn't matter so much. All depends on the loyalty of the Smiths.

ARM IS MANGLED BY CIRCULAR SAW

BUTLER, Pa., May 16.—Duane Dobson 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Dobson of Boyers in Northern Butler county underwent an operation in the Butler hospital last night for the removal of his left arm about two inches above the elbow.

The boy was helping his father in the operation of a small sawmill, shoveling sawdust away from a circular saw. He was throwing the sawdust to the right and unthinkingly he turned to the left when his arm was caught in the saw and mangled.

Forestry Official Dies Of Injuries

(International News Service)

DOYLESTOWN, Pa., May 16.—J Freeman Hendricks, 74, vice president of the Pennsylvania Forestry Association died in the Abington hospital early today of injuries sustained when struck by a motor truck. The aged attorney received a compound fracture of the leg and other injuries. Gangrene set in causing his death shortly after last midnight.

Babe Ruth Headed Toward New Record In Circuit Clouts

Believe Ruth Will Break Record Of 60 Homers Established In 1927

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 16.—If Babe Ruth continues to park baseballs in the bleachers at his present rate he will hit 65 home runs this season, as against last year's record of 60. With a little more than one-sixth of New York's schedule completed, the King of Swat has poled out eleven circuit clouts.

In three successive times at bat against Detroit pitchers yesterday, the Babe lofted two balls into the right field bleachers and then contrib a triple.

The mighty slugger is now games and eight days ahead of record-smashing pace he set last son. In the last seven games he hit five homers.
